Author from the Ministry of Finance to the Commissioner of Taxes to Collect Social Security Charges on Supernumerary Payments and on Payments to Piece-workers, Contractors, and Others for Personal Labour or Services

1. Pursuant to subsection (4) of section 118 of the Social Security Act, 1938, and section 13 of the Finance Act (No. 2), 1942, I hereby authorize the Commissioner of Taxes to collect social security charge on the payments set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) hereof, as the money so paid were salary or wages of the person receiving such payments: Provided however that social security charge shall be payable only on so much of the payment as shall remain after deduction therefrom of any amount fixed by the Commissioner under subsection (4) of section 13 of the Finance Act (No. 2), 1942, as representing expenditure incurred in the production thereof by the person performing such work or services——

(a) Any payment made to any person or to any agent on behalf of that person where that payment is substantially a payment for the personal labour of that person.

(b) Any payment or class of payment which, notwithstanding clause 1 hereof, the Commissioner by specific notice to the person making the payment, determines shall not be treated as if it were salary or wages for the purpose of the collection of social security charge.

3. If any question shall arise as to whether any payment is included in the class of payment referred to in clause 2 (a) hereof, the production to the person making such payment of a certificate from the Commissioner or a Superintendent of the Branch of the Land and Income Tax Department that the person to whom or for whose benefit the payment is made is recognized as a contractor in business on his own account and that the social security charge is not required to be deducted from payments made to him shall, during the currency of the certificate, be conclusive.

4. For the purposes of this authority, any amount credited to or applied on account of any person shall be deemed to have been paid to such person when it was so credited or applied.

5. For the purposes of this authority——

(a) A payment shall be deemed to be made for the personal labour of a person if it is made for work done or services rendered by that person, including the supply of——

(i) Any hand implements or tools:

(ii) Any personal equipment employed in carrying out the work or performing the services or for the transport of the person carrying out the work or performing the services in respect of which equipment a deduction for maintenance and other expenditure is allowed by the Commissioner under subsection (4) of section 13 of the Finance Act (No. 2), 1942.

6. In this authority the following rules of construction shall apply——

(a) Words importing the singular number include the plural number and words importing the plural number include the singular number:

(b) Words importing the masculine gender include females:

(c) All words referring to persons shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include firms, companies and other bodies of persons, corporate or unincorporate.

7. This authority is in addition to the following previous authorities——

(iii) Authority dated 16th February, 1945 (New Zealand Gazette No. 14, 22nd February, 1945, page 201).

(iv) Authority dated 20th June, 1945 (New Zealand Gazette No. 45, 28th June, 1945, page 847).

(v) Authority dated 4th April, 1949 (New Zealand Gazette No. 23, 7th April, 1949, page 885).

Datcd this 20th day of September, 1950.

THE GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT OF SOCIAL SECURITY IN NEW ZEALAND

A survey of social security in New Zealand from 1898 to 1949, and the most comprehensive work on the subject yet published in this country.

Of 180 pages, the book is divided into three parts—cash benefits, health benefits, and finance. Each subject is dealt with in detail and there is a comprehensive index.

The book will undoubtedly be of considerable interest to those interested in social security and social services, and will be especially valuable to University students.
