

Special Conditions.—No person shall, on the days specified by the Hobson Acclimatization Society, take or kill imported or native game while occupying any stand, hide, loo, or position, as commonly used by duck-shooters (hereinafter referred to as a stand), which has been duly claimed by any other licence-holder in accordance with the following provisions:—

(a) A stand may be claimed by the planting thereon at such time on such day as is decided by the Hobson Acclimatization Society, of a stake with a board attached having plainly marked thereon the name and address of the claimant and the number of his licence:

(b) No person shall claim more than one stand:

(c) No stand shall be claimed on or within 100 yards of a stand which has already been duly claimed by any other person, except with the consent of such last-mentioned person:

Provided, however, that any stand which is not occupied by the claimant within half an hour after sunrise on any of the aforesaid days may be occupied on that day by any other licence-holder:

Provided further that nothing in this clause contained shall be deemed to affect in any way whatsoever the rights of owners or occupiers of any lands in respect of shooting on such lands.
