Appointing a Member of the Otago Catchment Board

FREYBERG, Governor-General

WHEREAS Edwin Carradine Stanton, Esquire, a duly elected member of the Otago Catchment Board, has resigned from membership of such Board:

And whereas the local authorities of the several constituent districts included in the combined district of the Otago Catchment Board have failed for a period of two months to appoint some qualified person to fill the extraordinary vacancy in the office of a representative of a combined district on such Board caused by such resignation:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by section 56 of the Soil Conservation and Rivers Control Act 1941, I, Bernard Cyril, Baron Freyberg, the Governor-General of New Zealand, hereby appoint Robert Abraham Wilkie, Esquire, of Dunedin, Merchant, to be a representative of a combined district on the Otago Catchment Board in place of the said Edwin Carradine Stanton, the said Robert Abraham Wilkie to hold office only for the unexpired portion of the term of office of the said Edwin Carradine Stanton.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 4th day of March 1952.

W. S. GOOSMAN, Minister of Works.
