Unclaimed Lands—Notice by the Public Trustee Under the Public Trust Office Act 1903, and its Amendments

To the owner of the following land, that is to say: All that parcel of land containing 3 roods 21 perches (3 r. 21 p.), more or less, situate in the District of Lincoln and being Lots 16 and 18, Block I, and Lots 3 and 5, Block II, on Deposited Plan 307, and being also parts of Rural Sections 4603 and 4830 and being the whole of the land comprised and described in certificate of title, Volume 46, folio 122 (Canterbury Registry), and being the whole of the land in Transfer No. 21732, dated the 24th day of October 1883, from J. T. Strange and Another to William Bickerton and James William Kelly, of Christchurch, Merchants.

WHEREAS after due inquiry, the owner of the above described land cannot be found:

And whereas the said owner has no known agent in New Zealand: Now the Public Trustee hereby calls upon such owner, within six months of the date of the publication of this notice in the New Zealand Gazette, to establish to the satisfaction of the Public Trustee his title to the said land, and if he fails or neglects so to do, the Public Trustee will exercise as regards the said land the powers and authorities granted to him in and by the Public Trust Office Act 1908 (Part II), and its amendments.

Dated this 27th day of May 1952.

G. E. TURNEY, Public Trustee.

Price Order No. 1383 (Fruit and Vegetable Containers)

PURSUANT to the Control of Prices Act 1947, the Price Tribunal, acting with the authority of the Minister of Industries and Commerce, hereby makes the following Price Order:—

- This Order may be cited as Price Order No. 1383, and shall come into force on the 5th day of June 1952.
- (1) Price Orders Nos. 847* and 1080† are hereby revoked.
- (2) The revocation of the said Orders shall not affect the liability of any person for any offence in relation thereto committed before the coming into force of this Order.

APPLICATION OF THIS ORDER

- (1) Nothing in this Order shall apply with respect to—
 - Any container in which apples, pears, New Zealand lemons (other than Meyer lemons), or main crop potatoes are packed, or
 - Any container that is clearly marked with the name and address of the owner, the amount of the deposit charge thereon, and a statement that that deposit charge will be refunded in full, if the retailer returns the container to the point at which he took delivery.
- Except as provided in subclause (1) hereof and subject to the following provisions of this Order, this Order applies with respect to the prices that shall be charged for the containers specified in the Schedule hereto when packed with fruit or vegetables and submitted on consignment and displayed for sale in the premises of any fruit and produce merchant whether the fruit or vegetables are sold by auction or otherwise and whether or not the merchant selling the fruit or vegetables is the holder of an auctioneer's licence.
- For the purposes of this Order the packages referred to by number in the Schedule hereto shall be deemed to be the same packages as are referred to by corresponding numbers in the First Schedule to the New Zealand Crown Fruit Regulations 1952.‡
- Any container described in the Schedule hereto otherwise than by number shall, for the purposes of this Order, mean a container of the kind customarily referred to by that description in the fruit or vegetable trade.
- The provisions of this Order apply with respect to containers whether new or second-hand.

FIXING ACTUAL PRICES OF CONTAINERS TO WHICH THIS ORDER APPLIES

4. The actual price that shall be charged for any container to which this Order applies shall be the appropriate price specified in the Schedule hereto.

Price Order No. 1381 (Honey)

PURSUANT to the Control of Prices Act 1947, the Price Tribunal, acting with the authority of the Minister of Industries and Commerce, hereby makes the following Price Order:—

PRELIMINARY

1. This Order may be cited as Price Order No. 1381, and shall come into force on the 6th day of June 1952.

2. (1) Price Order No. 1343* is hereby revoked.

(2) The revocation of the said Order shall not affect the liability of any person for any offence in relation thereto committed before the coming into force of this Order.

3. (1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“The said Act” means the Control of Prices Act 1947:

“Honey in the comb” means either—

(a) Honey sold in standard sections; or

(b) Cut comb honey—that is, honey containing no visible traces of stored pollen or other impurities stored in clean new combs that have not been used at any time for brood-rearing purposes:

“Packer” means a wholesaler who sells to another wholesaler honey packed in retail containers, and includes a producer who sells to a wholesaler honey packed in retail containers as aforesaid:

“Producer” means a beekeeper whose apiary is registered pursuant to the Apiaries Act 1927:

“Retail container” means a jar, carton, or tin supplied by the vendor of the honey and containing not more than 10 lb. net weight of honey:

“Standard case” means a case or other outer container containing in the aggregate approximately 60 lb. of honey packed in retail containers:

“Wholesale free delivery area” means any area within which any wholesaler normally undertakes the free delivery of goods to retailers.

(2) Terms and expressions defined in the said Act when used in this Order have the meanings severally assigned thereto by that Act, unless the context otherwise requires.

4. For the purpose of this Order, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the said Act, any person who sells by retail to any one purchaser for delivery at any one time not less than two standard case lots of honey shall, in respect of the sale, be deemed to be a wholesaler, and the provisions of this Order as to maximum wholesale prices shall apply accordingly with respect to every such sale.

5. The maximum prices fixed by this Order apply with respect to sales by auction as well as to other sales.

FIXING MAXIMUM PRICES FOR HONEY SOLD IN RETAIL CONTAINERS

6. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this clause and of clauses 9 and 10 hereof, the maximum price that may be charged or received for honey packed in retail containers of the kinds described in the first column of the Schedule hereto shall be the appropriate price fixed in the second, third, or fourth column of that Schedule.

(2) Where the quantity of honey sold by a packer to a wholesaler or to a retailer in any one transaction is six standard case lots or more the cost involved in effecting delivery to the port (where carriage by sea is entailed) or railway station (where carriage by sea is not entailed) that is nearest or most convenient of access to the wholesaler's or to the retailer's place of business shall be borne by the packer.

(3) The maximum prices fixed in the fourth column of the Schedule hereto are fixed in respect of supplies of honey available to the retailer free of freight charges for delivery at his store from any source whatever.

(4) Where supplies of honey are delivered to a retailer (other than a retailer situate within a wholesale free delivery area) otherwise than free of freight charges as aforesaid the price that may be charged by the retailer shall be the appropriate price fixed as
