German "Loss Assessment" and "Equalization of Burdens" Laws

THE Minister of External Affairs has been informed that the period for filing claims for war damage and other losses under the German Loss Assessment and Equalization of Burdens Laws has been extended to 31 March 1954.

Under the provisions of the Loss Assessment and Equalization of Burdens legislation, owners of certain classes of property located in the Federal Republic of Germany or in the Western Sectors of Berlin are eligible to file claims for physical damage to such property arising from military action during the Second World War. Application forms and information concerning the interpretation or operation of these laws may be obtained from the authorities of the Parish (Gemeinde) in which the property was located or from the nearest German Representative overseas. In the case of New Zealand applicants this would be the German Embassy, Sydney.

Department of External Affairs, Wellington, 14 September 1953.

FOSS SHANAHAN,

Acting Secretary of External Affairs.
