NOTE.—At stations where departures from normal are in parentheses, the temperature record has been maintained for less than ten years. Rainfall normals have been revised and now refer to the standard period

Weather sequence.—For the first two days of the month the weather was mainly fair or fine under the influence of an anticyclone centred to the south-east of the South Island. There was a general deterioration on the 3rd with the approach of the 12th as the depression weakened and moved away across the Tasman Sea. The weather remained unsettled for several days as this disturbance moved northwards, and the south-western parts of both islands were affected by the same system. The period was generally fine, except when there were some rain showers on the southern parts of the South Island.

On the 22nd several violent thunderstorms were reported from the central provinces, while a local whirlwind wrecked some farm buildings at Belle Block, New Plymouth.

Temperatures.—Temperatures were appreciably above normal for the whole country. The departure exceeded 2°F. in Timaru southwards and also over most of Westland and Wellington Provinces. For Gore and Invercargill it was the warmest May since 1938. In a few places, including Wellington City and Invercargill Bay was just as warm as April.

Sunsight.—Sunsight was appreciably below normal in Taranaki and Westland, with a deficiency exceeding 20 in. In most other districts there was little variation from the normal, but Waikato and some coastal districts of Canterbury and Otago were the exceptions.

Customs Department, Wellington C. 1, 1 July 1954.

(Tariff Order 114)

J. P. D. JOHNSEN, Comptroller of Customs.

Grant to Ex-prisoners of War of the Japanese

THE Minister of External Affairs has announced that a grant of £25 would be made to those New Zealanders who were prisoners of war of the Japanese during the Second World War.

"It was not possible", the Minister said, "to make adequate provision in the Japanese Pension Treaty for the claims of those persons who suffered personal injury and maltreatment in Japanese prisoner-of-war or internment camps. Other allied Governments, including the United Kingdom, Canadian, and Australian Governments, have accordingly assumed the responsibility of compensating those of their nationals who suffered special hardship by reason of their imprisonment or internment in the Far East, and it seems only appropriate that the New Zealand Government should do likewise. As a result of representations made by the New Zealand Ex-prisoners of War Association and the New Zealand Returned Services Association, the Government has therefore decided that a grant of £25 per capita should be made to those New Zealand ex-servicemen and merchant seamen who were prisoners of war of the Japanese. The next-of-kin of deceased prisoners will also be eligible for the grant. Payment will be made on receipt of an application made to that branch of the armed forces in which the ex-prisoner served prior to his capture. In the case of merchant seamen, application should be made to the Maritime Department."

The Minister of External Affairs has also announced that from the enemy assets at the Government's disposal a grant would be made to the New Zealand National Patriotic Fund Board for the welfare of ex-prisoners of war and their dependants, and a separate fund established for the welfare of New Zealand civilians interned by the Japanese who suffered special hardship, and who are now in need. This fund will be administered by the Social Security Department.

Dated at Wellington, this 23rd day of June 1954.

FOSS SHANAHAN,
For the Secretary of External Affairs.

SETTLEMENT OF WAR CLAIMS

THE Minister of External Affairs has announced that persons who, as a result of an act of war, suffered property loss or damage in Germany, in German occupied territories, or in Japanese occupied territories (but not in Japan itself) may file details of their claims with the Public Trustee, Wellington. Claim forms may be obtained from the Public Trustee.

Receipt of a claim by the Public Trustee will not constitute any admission by the Government of the validity of the claim, or any guarantee that the claim will be met either in whole or in part.

Dated at Wellington, this 23rd day of June 1954.

FOSS SHANAHAN,
For the Secretary of External Affairs.
