WILDLIFE REFUGES (PREVIOUSLY KNOWN AS SANCTUARIES)

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 14

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Land Act 1948, the Government Railways Act 1949, the Forests Act 1949, or any other Act affecting lands of the Crown, the Governor-General may from time to time, by Proclamation, declare any area described in the Proclamation and available for the purpose, subject in the case of any land other than unoccupied land of the Crown to the consent of the occupier, to be a wildlife refuge for the purposes of this Act, and may in like manner revoke or amend any such Proclamation:

(3) While any Proclamation or Order in Council under subsection one of this section remains in force, it shall not be lawful for any person, except as provided in subsection two of this section or in subsection two of section five of this Act or pursuant to an authority granted under section fifty-three or section fifty-four of this Act, to hunt or kill for any purpose, or molest, capture, disturb, harry, or worry any wildlife in the wildlife refuge, or to take, destroy, or disturb the nests, eggs, or spawn of any such wildlife, or for any person to bring onto the wildlife refuge or have in his possession or discharge in the wildlife refuge any firearm or explosive, or have in his possession or control in the wildlife refuge any dog or cat, or to do anything likely to cause any wildlife to leave the wildlife refuge.

(5) Every sanctuary constituted at the commencement of this Act by a Warrant under section six of the Animals Protection and Game Act 1921-22 shall be deemed to be a wildlife refuge for the purposes of this Act.

METHOD OF TAKING RESTRICTED

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 18

(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no person shall—

(a) Trap game in any manner whatever or take any game by means of traps or by any means other than by shooting with a shotgun:

Provided that a dog may be used in conjunction with a shotgun for the purpose of finding, flushing, or retrieving any game:

(b) Erect or set any trap, net, snare, or other device for the purpose of taking any game:

(c) Hunt or kill any game with—

(i) Any swivel gun or punt gun; or

(ii) Any rifle; or

(iii) Any automatic, auto-loading, or repeating shotgun, unless the magazine has been so adjusted in accordance with regulations under this Act that the gun is incapable of holding more than two shells; or

(iv) Any shotgun other than a shoulder gun; or

(v) Any shotgun the gauge of which is greater than that known as twelve gauge:

(d) Use with any shotgun used for the purpose of hunting or killing game—

(i) Any apparatus used for the purpose of silencing the report of a shotgun; or

(ii) Any cartridge of a length exceeding two and three quarters inches:

(e) In hunting or killing any game from any stand, hide, shelter, mai-mai, mudhole, boat, louvre, or other contrivance, use more than one shotgun:

Provided that any person so engaged may have one, and not more than one, further shotgun in a condition not immediately suitable for use and held for use only in the event of the first shotgun becoming damaged or otherwise unfit for use:

(f) For the purpose of hunting or killing any game use—

(i) Any live decoy; or

(ii) More than ten decoys; or

(iii) Any cylinder or mudhole or similar device in any lake, lagoon, pond, river, estuary, or other open water, whether natural or artificially constructed, unless the sides of the cylinder or mudhole or device project not less than two feet above the surface of water; or

(iv) Any aircraft, motor vehicle, or other vehicle propelled by mechanical power.

Provided that nothing in this subparagraph shall be deemed to prevent any person from using any aircraft or vehicle for the purpose of travelling generally or to any place where he intends to hunt or kill game or of returning from any such place; or

(v) On any lake, lagoon, pond, river, estuary, or other water (whether natural or artificially constructed), any vessel (other than a rowboat) in driving, chasing, frightening, or stalking any game, whether by himself or by any other person:

Provided that nothing in this subparagraph shall be deemed to prevent any person from using any vessel for camping purposes or for the purpose of travelling generally or to any place where he intends to kill or hunt game or of returning from any such place, or, subject to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph and to the provisions of subparagraph (vi) of this paragraph, to prohibit shooting from a moored vessel or to prohibit the use of any vessel for the purpose of retrieving game that has been killed; or

(vi) Any unmoored floating stand, hide, shelter, mai-mai, or louvre, or any unmoored boat artificially dressed or covered in any way:

(g) By any means spread oil on any water for the purpose of hunting or killing any game:

(h) Use any light for the purpose of hunting or killing any game.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (f) of subsection one of this section—

"Decoy" includes any dead game that is so placed or arranged as to simulate the appearance of live game:

"Row boat" means any vessel that for the time being is wholly propelled by oars or paddles:

"Vessel" includes any launch, boat, canoe, punt, or other similar craft, whether propelled by mechanical power or not.

FEEDING OF GAME AREAS PROHIBITED

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 17

(1) Except with the consent of the Minister, no person shall cast, throw, or place, or cause or permit to be cast, thrown, or placed, or assist in casting, throwing or placing, in or near the margin of any water (including any river, stream, lake, lagoon, pond, estuary, swamp or other water, whether natural or
