Declaring That Section 11, Mental Health Amendment Act 1921-22, Shall Apply to the State of New South Wales

[L.S.] C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General
A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS by subsection (1) of section 10 of the Mental Health Amendment Act 1921-22 it is provided that the Governor-General, on being satisfied that the laws in force in any British possession (other than New Zealand) are such as to enable powers to be exercised in that possession in cases of lunatic patients residing in New Zealand substantially similar to the powers contained in section 11 of the said Act in cases of lunatic patients residing in that possession, may, by Proclamation approved in Executive Council, declare that the said section shall, subject to any exceptions and modifications mentioned in the Proclamation, apply to that possession, and thereupon while such Proclamation is in force the said section shall apply accordingly:

And whereas the Governor-General is satisfied that the laws in force in the State of New South Wales in the Commonwealth of Australia are such as to enable powers to be exercised in that State in cases of lunatic patients residing in New Zealand substantially similar to the powers contained in section 11 of the said Act:

Now, therefore, pursuant to subsection (1) of section 10 of the said Act, I, Lieutenant-General Sir Charles Willoughby Moke Norrie, the Governor-General of New Zealand, with the approval of the Executive Council, hereby proclaim and declare that section 11 of the Mental Health Amendment Act 1921-22 shall apply to the State of New South Wales.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, and issued under the Seal of New Zealand, this 13th day of July 1955.

J. R. HANAN,

Minister in Charge of the Public Trust Office.

Approved in Executive Council this 13th day of July 1955.
