

Full General Court-martial Warrant

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General

To: The Adjutant-General, Army Headquarters, Wellington.

PURSUANT to the New Zealand Army Act 1950, I, Lieutenant-General Sir Charles Willoughby Moke Norrie, Governor-General of New Zealand, do hereby authorize and empower you from time to time and as occasion may require to convene General Courts-martial for the trial of such persons subject to military law as are for the time being under or within the territorial limits of your command or jurisdiction who shall be charged with any offence against the New Zealand Army Act for which they may be tried by Court-martial, whether such offence shall have been committed before or after you shall have taken upon yourself your command or appointment, and I do hereby authorize and empower you to confirm the findings and sentences of General Courts-martial and to cause any sentence thereof to be put into execution so far as you may lawfully do:

And I do hereby further authorize and empower you to delegate to any officer under your command or jurisdiction not below the rank of field officer a general or a limited authority to convene General Courts-martial for the trial of such persons subject to military law as are for the time being under or within the territorial limits of his command or jurisdiction, whether the offences shall have been committed before or after such officer shall have taken upon him his command and, if you deem it desirable, to confirm the findings and sentences of such Courts-martial and to cause any sentence thereof to be put into execution so far as he may lawfully do:

And I further authorize and empower you to appoint and to delegate to any qualified officer as aforesaid the power of appointing a fit and proper person from time to time for executing the office of Judge-Advocate at any Court-martial for the more orderly proceedings of the same:

And for executing the several powers, matters, and things herein expressed, this warrant shall be to you, and to others whom it may concern, a sufficient warrant and authority.

And I declare that this warrant shall without ratification extend to and invest with the aforesaid authorities and powers, your successors, and any officer for the time being appointed as Acting Adjutant-General of the New Zealand Army.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 16th day of November 1955.

E. H. HALSTEAD, for the Minister of Defence.
