

RETAILERS' PRICES

8. (1) The maximum price that may be charged or received by any retailer for any cheese to which this order applies shall be determined in accordance with the following provisions, namely:

(a) In the case of cheese sold by a retailer to whom supplies of Cheddar cheese are available, free of freight charges, for delivery at his store from any source whatever, the maximum retail prices shall be: (i) Loaf size 2s. 2d. per pound, and (ii) All other sizes 2s. per pound.

(b) In cases to which the last preceding paragraph does not apply, the maximum retail prices shall be:

(i) Loaf size 2s. 2d. per pound, and
(ii) All other sizes 2s. per pound increased to the next upward halfpenny by the appropriate proportion of the freight charges incurred by the retailer in obtaining delivery at his store:

Provided that where any cheese to which this paragraph applies is obtained by the retailer from a source of supply that is not the most convenient of access to the retailer's store, the increase of the price per pound authorised by this paragraph shall not exceed the appropriate proportion of the freight charges that would have been incurred by the retailer if the cheese had been obtained from the source of supply most convenient of access to his store, and if delivery had been effected by a common carrier at current freight rates.

(2) Where the quantity of cheese sold by a retailer in any one transaction is not an exact number of pounds, the maximum price shall be computed at the rate per pound fixed in accordance with the last preceding subclause.

(3) If in respect of any cheese the retail price charged in accordance with the provisions of this clause is not an exact number of pence or halfpence, the maximum price shall be computed to the next upward halfpenny.

SPECIAL PRICES WHERE EXTRAORDINARY CHARGES INCURRED

9. Subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any retailer, may authorise special prices in respect of any cheese to which this order applies where special circumstances exist or for any reason extraordinary charges (freight or otherwise) are incurred by the retailer. Any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to a specified lot or consignment of cheese or may relate generally to all cheese to which this order applies sold by the retailer while the approval remains in force.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of August 1956.

The Seal of the Price Tribunal was affixed hereto in the presence of—

[L.S.] D. J. DALGLISH (Judge), President.
