

Boundaries of City of Lower Hutt and Borough of Petone Altered

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 28th day of November 1956

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Local Government Commission Act 1953, the Local Government Commission has approved as final a scheme bearing date the 13th day of October 1955 providing for the area described in the Schedule to the said scheme to be excluded from the City of Lower Hutt and included in the Borough of Petone:

And whereas, pursuant to section 33 of the said Act, an appeal from the decision of the Local Government Commission was made by the Lower Hutt City Council:

And whereas, pursuant to section 34 of the said Act, the Local Government Appeal Authority dismissed the appeal:

And whereas it is deemed expedient to give effect to the final scheme as hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the Local Government Commission Act 1953, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby declares that, as on and from the 1st day of April 1957, the area described in the Schedule hereto shall be excluded from the City of Lower Hutt and included in the Borough of Petone, and, with the like advice and consent, hereby also declares that the alteration of the boundaries of the said city and the said borough hereinbefore made shall be deemed to have been effected under the Municipal Corporations Act 1954.

SCHEDULE

AREA EXCLUDED FROM CITY OF LOWER HUTT AND INCLUDED IN BOROUGH OF PETONE

ALL that area in the Wellington Land District, containing 190 acres, more or less, and bounded by a line commencing at a point in Block XIII, Belmont Survey District, being the intersection of the southern side of the Wellington-Napier railway and the middle of the Hutt River; thence southerly generally down the middle of that river to a point in line with the south-western side of Marine Parade, Borough of Petone; thence north-westerly along a right line to the intersection of the south-western side of Marine Parade with the western side of the western branch of the Hutt River forming the boundary of the Borough of Petone as described in Gazette of 5 July 1888, at page 740, and 10 March 1910, at page 775; thence northerly along the eastern boundaries of the Borough of Petone, to its intersection with the southern side of the Wellington-Napier railway; thence easterly along the said southern side to its intersection with the middle of the Hutt River, being the point of commencement.

T. J. SHERRARD, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Officers of Government of Ross Dependency Appointed

C. W. M. NORRIE, Governor-General

WHEREAS by the Order in Council dated the 30th day of July 1923,* made under the British Settlements Act 1887 of the United Kingdom Parliament, the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of New Zealand for the time being (thereinafter and hereinafter called "the Governor") was appointed to be the Governor of the Ross Dependency, and all the powers and authorities which by the said order were given and granted to the Governor for the time being of the Dependency were thereby vested in him:

And whereas the Governor was thereby further authorised and empowered to make all such rules and regulations as might lawfully be made by Her Majesty's authority for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency:

And whereas by regulations made by the Governor on the 14th day of November 1923†, it was enacted that all persons appointed by the Governor for the time being of the Dependency should have such power and authority as might be granted them in due course of law, and might be empowered to do such things as might be necessary or desirable to ensure that the laws in force in the Dependency are duly observed and complied with in every respect, and to do all things necessary or expedient for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency, and to safeguard and preserve Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty over and in respect of the Dependency:

And whereas by notice issued by the Governor on the 27th day of August 1953‡, Harold Ruegg, Esquire, was appointed an officer of the Government of the Dependency and vested with the powers and authorities described in the said notice, and in particular with the general executive and administrative authority in preserving Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty and the laws and regulations in force in the Dependency:

And whereas it is expedient that further persons be appointed officers of the Government of the Dependency:
