

Extending the Time for Forwarding the Report of a Commission Appointed Under the Auckland Harbour Bridge Act 1950

COBHAM, Governor-General

To all to whom these presents shall come, and to:

STANLEY LOGAN PATERSON, Esquire, C.B.E., of Hamilton, Retired Stipendiary Magistrate; and
DAVID HARVEY STEEN, Esquire, of Auckland, Public Accountant.

GREETING.

WHEREAS by a Warrant dated the 4th day of June 1957, you, the said Stanley Logan Paterson, were constituted and appointed to be a Commission, in terms of the Auckland Harbour Bridge Act 1950, to inquire into and report upon certain matters relating to the payment of compensation to employees of the Devonport Steam Ferry Co. Ltd.:

And whereas by the same Warrant, you, the said David Harvey Steen, were appointed to assist the said Stanley Logan Paterson as such Commission as aforesaid:

And whereas such Commission was required to submit its report not later than the 30th day of September 1957:

And whereas the time within which such Commission was required to submit its report was by a Warrant dated the 19th day of September 1957 extended to the 31st day of October 1957:

And whereas the time within which such Commission was required to submit its report was by a Warrant dated the 23rd day of October 1957 further extended to the 30th day of November 1957:

And whereas it is expedient to further extend the time within which such Commission shall submit its report for a period of one month, that is, until the 31st day of December 1957:

Now, therefore, I, Charles John, Viscount Cobham, the Governor-General of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by the said Act and by the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in this behalf, hereby declare and appoint that the time at or before which you, the said Stanley Logan Paterson, shall submit your report aforesaid is hereby extended to the 31st day of December 1957:

And I hereby declare that the provisions of the aforesaid Warrant dated the 4th day of June 1957 shall apply as fully and effectively in all respects as if the 31st day of December 1957 were the date originally fixed in the said Warrant as the last day for the submission by such Commission of its report.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 3rd day of December 1957.

W. S. GOOSMAN, Minister of Works.

Officer of Government of Ross Dependency Appointed

COBHAM, Governor-General

WHEREAS by the Order in Council dated the 30th day of July 1923,* made under the British Settlements Act 1887 of the United Kingdom Parliament, the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of New Zealand for the time being (hereinafter and hereinafter called "the Governor") was appointed to be the Governor of the Ross Dependency, and all the powers and authorities which by the said order were given and granted to the Governor for the time being of the Dependency were thereby vested in him:

And whereas the Governor was thereby further authorised and empowered to make all such rules and regulations as might lawfully be made by Her Majesty's authority for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency:

And whereas by regulations made by the Governor on the 14th day of November 1923†, it was enacted that all persons appointed by the Governor for the time being of the Dependency should have such power and authority as might be granted them in due course of law, and might be empowered to do such things as might be necessary or desirable to ensure that the laws in force in the Dependency are duly observed and complied with in every respect, and to do all things necessary or expedient for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency, and to safeguard and preserve Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty over and in respect of the Dependency:

And whereas by notice issued by the Governor on the 27th day of August 1953‡, Harold Ruegg, Esquire, was appointed an officer of the Government of the Dependency and vested with the powers and authorities described in the said notice, and in particular with the general executive and administrative authority in preserving Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty and the laws and regulations in force in the Dependency:

And whereas by notice issued by the Governor on the 23rd day of November 1956§, Acting Captain Henry Kirkwood, Sir Edmund Percival Hillary, and Dr Trevor Hatherton were appointed officers of the Government of the Dependency and vested with the powers and authorities described in the said notice:

And whereas it is expedient that a further person be appointed an officer of the Government of the Dependency:

Now, therefore, I, Charles John, Viscount Cobham, the Governor-General of New Zealand, and as such the Governor of the Ross Dependency, hereby appoint as an officer of the Government of the Dependency; and I hereby confer on him all the powers and authorities which may be exercised in New Zealand by a Justice of the Peace, and also the powers and authorities which may be so exercised by a Coroner, and also the powers and authorities which may be so exercised by a Postmaster;

Linden Herbert Martin

The said Linden Herbert Martin to exercise his functions at such places within the Dependency as may be directed by the said Harold Ruegg, Esquire, or by the said Acting Captain Henry Kirkwood; and to hold office and exercise the duties thereof during pleasure.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, as the Governor of the Ross Dependency, this 23rd day of November 1957.

T. L. MACDONALD, Minister of External Affairs.
