

- 10. Wherever possible the award shall be presented in some public manner.
- 11. There shall be published in each volume of the Transactions of the Royal Society of New Zealand a complete list of recipients of the E. R. Cooper Memorial Award.

(d) A resolution passed at the semi-annual meeting of the Council held on 22 November 1956, with reference to section G.I. governing Fellows of the Society, that rule G.I.6 (b) be amended to read:

“(b) Six months before the annual meeting the secretary shall forward to each Fellow resident in New Zealand a voting paper containing the names of the nominees, together with an envelope marked ‘Voting Paper’ on the outside, and with a space for the signature of the voter on the inside of the flap. Each Fellow desiring to vote shall return his voting paper to the secretary within one month of receiving it. Each voting paper shall be returned in a sealed envelope marked ‘Voting Paper’ on the outside, and shall be signed by the voter on the inside of the flap. The envelope distributed by the Society or any other envelope so marked may be used for this purpose. Any voting paper not returned in this manner shall be deemed invalid. The secretary shall retain the voting papers in their envelopes unopened and shall deliver them to the convener of the Fellowship Selection Committee.”

Rule G.I.6 (d) be renumbered G.I.6 (e)
Rule G.I.6 (e) be renumbered G.I.6 (f)

A new rule G.I.6 (d) be inserted:

“(d) The member of the Fellowship Selection Committee with the longest continuous service on that committee shall be convener. In the event of two or more members having equally long service the committee shall elect the convener from those members with the longest service. The convener shall receive the voting papers from the secretary, and, after verifying their validity, shall count the votes for each nominee. He shall communicate the results of the voting to the other members of the committee but not to any other person. If at any time the convener is unable to act the member of the committee with the next longest continuous service shall act in his stead.”

Dated at Wellington this 8th day of May 1958.

M. WOOD, Secretary.
