PRIVATE BILL

Mackelvie Trust Bill

In the matter of the Mackelvie Trust Bill, being a Private Bill intituled "An Act to vary the terms of certain trusts created by the will of the late James Tannock Mackelvie, of the County of Middlesex in England, Esquire."

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mackelvie Trust Board, a body corporate deemed incorporated under the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 (hereinafter called the "board"), intends to apply by petition to the House of Representatives in Parliament assembled during the present session for leave to bring in the above-mentioned Bill. The objects of the Bill comprise the making of certain variations in the terms of the trusts created by the will of the late James Tannock Mackelvie, of the County of Middlesex, in England, Esquire (hereinafter called "the testator"), concerning certain moneys and investments vested in the board, and concerning certain pictures, prints, bronzes, statues, vases, works of art, articles of vertu, and curiosities bequeathed by the testator and vested in the board together with such additions thereto as have heretofore been made or may hereafter be made (hereinafter called "the Mackelvie Collection"). In particular the objects of the Bill are—

(1) To empower the Board, instead of acquiring a site and erecting a building thereon to contain the Mackelvie Collection, to make such arrangements as it thinks fit for the storage and custody of the Mackelvie Collection in or near the City of Auckland, and for the exhibition of the Mackelvie Collection or any part thereof in or near the City of Auckland, whether or not the control of the said building is vested or not as a separate unit or integrated with other works of art.

(2) To empower the board to arrange for the exhibition elsewhere of parts of the Mackelvie Collection not for the time being required in or near the City of Auckland.

(3) To empower the board under certain conditions to permit the exhibition of the Mackelvie Collection on such conditions and in such circumstances where a charge is made for admission.

(4) To require the board to set aside a sum of £20,000 as an investment fund, and to make provision as to the nature of the investments which may be made by the board.

(5) To make provision as to manner in which moneys and investments in the hands of the board shall or may be expended.

(6) To provide for the marking of the Mackelvie Collection.

(7) To empower the board to hold property for certain other charitable purposes.

(8) To make provision as to the manner of exercising powers of the board, as to the convening of meetings and as to the protection of persons dealing with the board.

(9) To remove certain doubts as to the effect of the resignation from the board of the Mayor of Auckland and to make provision for the appointment of a member of the Board by the Auckland City Council.

The promoter of the Bill is the Mackelvie Trust Board and all communications or notices to the board may be sent to it at its registered office, 6 Wyndham Street, in the City of Auckland. A copy of the Bill may be inspected at the same address.

Dated this 23rd day of June 1958.

Wherever possible technical terms have been avoided, and those essential to a proper understanding of the subject have been fully explained. Over one hundred illustrations contribute to an easy to read manner, covering the structure, powers, and jurisdiction of Parliament.

A Penal Policy for New Zealand

In this brochure the problem of crime is briefly surveyed and an outline given of the principles on which the Depart­ment of Justice acts in fulfilling its duty to provide better protection to society. The substance and the purposes of proposed changes in the law are also given.

A Penal Policy for New Zealand is commended by the Minister of Justice to all those - and it should be the concern of the whole community - who are interested in coping with what is undoubtedly a serious problem.

AGRICULTURAL BOTANY

By J. S. YEATES and ELLA O. CAMPBELL

This book supplies a long-felt want in this country by pro­viding a simple explanation of the manner in which plants function and the conditions necessary for their growth. Wherever possible technical terms have been avoided, and those essential to a proper understanding of the subject have been fully explained. Over one hundred illustrations contribute to a clear exposition of the subject. As a result, although the book is primarily intended for use in schools and colleges, it is also suitable for farmers, orchardists, horticulturists, and home gardeners.

236 pages. Illustrated.
