The Control of Prices Act 1947 (Ticketing of Goods) Notice 1958, No. 1

PURSUANT to section 47A of the Control of Prices Act 1947, the Minister of Industries and Commerce hereby gives the following notice:

1. This notice may be cited as the Control of Prices (Ticketing of Goods) Notice 1958, No. 1, and shall come into force on the 12th day of December 1958.

2. This notice shall apply to all retail sales (other than to sales by auction) of fresh or frozen meat intended for human consumption, which is veal, beef, pork, lamb, hogget, or mutton, and offals of any such meats, but shall not apply to bacon, ham, mince meat, sausage meat, saveloy-sausage meat, lard, or dripping.

3. Every retailer whose main business is the retail selling of meat, to which this notice applies, shall display in his shop window so as to be easily read by passers by and also in his shop in a prominent position so as to be easily read by customers, a price list in legible and prominent characters showing in respect of the meat the price per pound or, where in accordance with the customary practice within the trade the meat is offered or exposed for sale otherwise than by weight, the price per unit.

4. Every retailer of meat, to which this notice applies, other than retailers whose main business is the retail selling of meat, shall display in a prominent position in close proximity to all meat, to which this notice applies, offered or displayed for sale, so as to be easily read by customers, a price list in legible and prominent characters showing in respect of the meat the price per pound or, where in accordance with the customary practice within the trade the meat is offered or exposed for sale otherwise than by weight, the price per unit.

5. Every retailer who offers or exposes for sale any joints or cuts of meat to which this notice applies shall affix to each joint or cut a ticket, placard, or label, on which the total retail price of the joint or cut shall be stated in legible and prominent characters.

6. In the case of any meat to which this notice applies which, in accordance with the customary practice within the trade, is offered or exposed for sale otherwise than by the joint or cut, the retailer shall affix to or keep in a prominent position in such proximity to the meat to which it relates as to be obviously in relation thereto a ticket, placard, or label showing in legible and prominent characters the retail price per pound or, where in accordance with the customary practice within the trade the meat is offered or exposed for sale otherwise than by weight, the price per unit.

7. In any case where meat to which this notice applies is not readily identifiable with the description thereof set out in the price list displayed, the retailer shall affix to the meat a ticket, placard, or label giving a description so that it is readily identifiable with the description set out in the price list.
