Notice of Intention to Destroy Public Records

PURSUANT to section 17 of the Archives Act 1957, notice is hereby given of intention to destroy the following public records:

Internal Affairs Department—Registered Files 1912–32

These comprise a selection from the registered files of the Department accumulated between 1912 and 1932. All files relating to the general administration, broad policy, and execution of the particular functions of the Department, together with all material having any possible historical, economic, and social value, have been selected and preserved. The files to be destroyed consist only of the minor details and routine aspects which are of necessity connected with Government administration. They consist of files relating to accounts, staff, records, cables, mail boxes, stores control, office accommodation, office cleaning, and other housekeeping matters: minor details relating to constitutional matters—Royalty, General Assembly, elections, New Zealand Gazette, High Commissioner, flags, deaths of important people, public holidays, copies of local body bylaws and authorities for noncontinuing action, all of which have been gazetted: files relating to missing persons, change of name, stranded New Zealanders, requests for free passages to New Zealand, railway passes, and requests for miscellaneous information: minor matters relating to the personnel of fire boards, inspection of fire brigades and fire-fighting appliances; control of explosives; censorship of films; conduct of Royal Tours, and the entertainment of distinguished visitors; the issue of passports, translation from foreign languages, care and maintenance of war graves and cemeteries, and copies of surveyor's reports on planning of towns: permits for raffles and art unions, the holding of race meetings, and the export of Maori antiquities: licensing of auctioneers, land agents, and ownership of fire-arms: details of books, pictures, photographs, and objects acquired by the Turnbull Library, the Dominion Museum and art galleries, and material loaned to exhibitions: files relating to the requirements of a country at war, permits to leave New Zealand, relief funds, and patriotic societies: material relating to the distribution of Government publications, and Government advertising in local newspapers.

These files may be inspected on application to the National Archives, The Terrace, Wellington.

Any person may, within one month after the date of publication of this notice, lodge with the Secretary for Internal Affairs, Wellington, an objection to the destruction of the records specified above, stating therein the grounds of his objection. Such objections will be dealt with in accordance with section 18 of the Archives Act 1957.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of September 1959.

J. V. MEECH, Acting Chief Archivist.
