Price Order No. 1789 (Spirits and Beer)

Pursuant to the Control of Prices Act 1947, the Price Tribunal hereby makes the following Price Order:

1. This order may be cited as Price Order No. 1789 and shall come into force on the 13th day of November 1959.

2. (1) Price Order No. 1777* is hereby revoked.

(2) The reversion of the said price order shall not affect the liability of any person for any offence in relation thereto committed before the coming into force of this order.

3. (1) In this order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"Beer" includes ale, beer, stout, porter, and all other malt liquors in respect of which beer duty in accordance with Part III of the Finance Act 1915 is payable.

"Branded container" means a container indelibly branded in such a manner as to indicate clearly the capacity and the brand of the contents.

"Licensing Trust" means any licensing trust now or hereafter established under any Act:

"Price order" means an order made under any Act:

"Publican's licence" means a licence to sell, in either its original bottle or in a container, liquor under the authority of the conditional licence of the holder of a publican's licence, and any premises maintained by a Licensing Trust in which liquor is sold or supplied shall be deemed to be licensed premises, and the person for the time being charged with the management of any such premises shall be deemed to be the licensee thereof.

Application of This Order

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of this order, this order applies with respect to the sale by the holder of a publican's licence, tourist house licence, or accommodation licence for consumption on licensed premises, and to the sale by the holder of a publican's licence, tourist house licence, or accommodation licence of drinks containing spirits or beer to the holder of a conditional licence under the authority of that licence, of drinks containing spirits or beer.

(2) This order shall not apply to any liquor served in a lounge or dining room.

(3) For the purposes of this order liquor shall be deemed to be served in a lounge or a dining room only if it is served in a container filled in accordance with customary trade practice and to its normal capacity prior to and not for the purpose of that sale.

"Ounce" means fluid ounce as defined in the Weights and Measures Proclamation 1946*.

"Spirits" means whisky, rum, brandy, or gin.

"Standard measure" means five-eighths of an ounce.

(2) Terms and expressions defined in the Licensing Act 1908, as amended by this order, have the meanings severally assigned thereto by that Act.

(3) For the purposes of this order a Licensing Trust shall be deemed to be a holder of a publican's licence, and any premises maintained by a Licensing Trust in which liquor is sold or supplied shall be deemed to be licensed premises, and the person for the time being charged with the management of any such premises shall be deemed to be the licensee thereof.

Application of This Order

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this order, the maximum price that may be charged by the holder of a publican's licence, tourist house licence, or accommodation licence for consumption on licensed premises, or by the holder of a conditional licence under the authority of that licence, for any drink containing spirits shall be—

(a) Where the quantity of spirits contained in the drink is less than a full standard measure, 9d.

(b) Where the quantity of spirits contained in the drink is a full standard measure, or more than a full standard measure, 1s. 3d. for each full standard measure.

(2) Where the purchaser of any drink containing spirits requests a split-sized bottle of aerated water to be served, an additional charge may be made for such bottle.

(3) For the purposes of this order the term "split-sized" is defined as any bottle containing a proportionately smaller amount of a drink than a standard measure.

(4) Where the beer is served in a container of a capacity of 12 oz or more, the price that may be charged for beer by the licensee of licensed premises shall be—

(a) Where the beer is served in a branded container of a capacity of 12 oz or less: 9d.

(b) Where the beer is served in a branded container of a capacity of 12 oz or less: 6d.

(5) Subject to the provisions of clause 7 hereof where, at the request of the purchaser, beer other than of a capacity of 12 oz, 8 oz, or 5 oz, the maximum price that may be charged by the licensee as aforesaid shall be—

(a) For beer served in a container of a capacity of less than 12 oz: 9d.

(b) For beer served in a container of a capacity of less than 8 oz but more than 5 oz: 8d.

(c) For beer served in a container of a capacity of less than 5 oz: 6d.

(6) As soon as practicable after the date of the commence­ment of this order, and not later than 1 December 1959, every person to whom this order applies shall have available a sufficient supply of branded containers of a capacity of 8 oz and 12 oz respectively.

(7) Where branded containers are available in accordance with this order, but not later than 1 December 1959, every person to whom this order applies shall, in accordance with the request of any purchaser, serve beer to that purchaser in a branded container of a capacity of 12 oz or 8 oz or in a container and a capaciousness of the container exceeds 8 oz.

7. (1) Until such time as branded containers are available in accordance with this order, but not later than 1 December 1959, the maximum price that may be charged by the licensee as aforesaid shall be—

(a) Where the beer is served in a container of a capacity of 12 oz or less: 6d.

(b) Where the beer is served in a container of a capacity of more than 5 oz but less than 9 oz: 8d.

(c) Where the beer is served in a container of a capacity of more than 8 oz: 1s. increased by 1d. for the first complete oz and thereafter by 1d. for each additional complete oz by which the capacity of the container exceeds 8 oz.

(2) Unless the purchaser otherwise requests, no beer the subject of which this clause applies shall be served in a container of a capacity of less than 8 oz.

8. Notwithstanding the provisions of this order, the maximum price that may be charged for beer by the holder of a conditional licence under the authority of that licence shall be 7d. irrespective of the quantity served, and the quantity shall be deemed to be a complete oz by which the capacity of the container exceeds 8 oz.

9. Notwithstanding the provisions of this order the maximum price that may be charged for beer by the holder of a conditional licence under the authority of that licence shall be 7d. irrespective of the quantity served, and the quantity shall be deemed to be a complete oz by which the capacity of the container exceeds 8 oz.

10. Any container in which beer is served by a person to whom this clause applies shall be filled as near as reasonably possible to its full capacity.

11. Where the purchaser of beer requests the addition of any flavouring or diluting ingredient of a non-intoxicating nature to his drink, or the price of that drink is subject to any special or extraordinary charges (freight or otherwise) incurred by the applicant, any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to any particular drink or class of drinks or any particular charge to drinks to which this order applies sold by the applicant while the approval remains in force. Any authority given under this clause shall not be exhibited in the manner prescribed by clause 13 hereof in respect of price orders.

12. Every licensee of any licensed premises, and every holder of a conditional licence, may keep a copy of this price order or a statement of the retail prices fixed thereby permanently displayed in every place in the licensed premises where drinks are sold or supplied to the holder of any condition licence or discount of liquor under the authority of the conditional licence (as the case may be). Any person may examine the price order or statement without having to ask for its production and without having to obtain permission to examine it.

Dated at Wellington this 15th day of November 1959.

The seal of the Price Tribunal was affixed hereto in the presence of—

S. T. BARNETT, President.

Price Order No. 1790 (Bottled Beer Sold by Way of Retail)

Pursuant to the Control of Prices Act 1947, the Price Tribunal hereby makes the following price order:

1. This order may be cited as Price Order No. 1790 and shall come into force on the 13th day of November 1959.

2. (1) Price Order No. 1793, 1959 is hereby revoked.

(2) The revocation of the said price order shall not affect the liability of any person for any offence in relation thereto committed before the coming into force of this order.

3. In this order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Retail price" means the price charged by the retailer for the bottle or case of any bottled beer other than the charges specifically authorised by this order.

(b) "Wholesaler" means a person who is the holder of a wholesaler's licence under the Licensing Act 1908 or who is the holder of a brewer's licence under Part III of the Finance Act 1915.

(c) "Wholesale cost", in relation to beer to which this order applies, means the sum of the following amounts:

(a) The actual price paid to the wholesaler by the retailer for the beer, including any charges made for bottles but not including any charges made by the wholesaler for any cartons, cases, or crates in which the beer is delivered;

(b) The amount of any sales tax payable by the retailer in respect of the beer and not included in the price paid to the wholesaler;

(c) The amount of freight charges incurred by the retailer in obtaining delivery of the beer into his premises, being not more in any case than the amount of freight charges that would have been incurred if the beer had been transported by land or sea by the shortest or most convenient route by a common carrier at current freight rates; decreased by the amount of any discount allowed to the retailer for payment on or before a specified date, whether or not the retailer avails himself of the right to obtain that discount.

Application of this Order

4. (1) This order applies with respect to all beer contained either in bottles or in pint bottles, and by a retailer for consumption off the premises in respect of which his licence is granted.

(2) Nothing in this order shall apply to the sale of beer by a wholesaler to any person other than a retailer.

Fixing Maximum Retail Price of Bottled Beer to Which This Order Applies

5. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this clause, the maximum price that may be charged or received by any retailer for any bottled beer to which this order applies shall be the amount of the wholesale cost incurred by the retailer in respect of the lot sold, increased at the rate of 6s. 3d. per dozen for quart bottles or 3s. 5d. per dozen for pint bottles, as the case may be.

(2) If the retail price per bottle calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause is not an exact number of pence or half pence, the price may be calculated to the nearest half penny; but where the price of any lot of bottled beer would not be an exact number of pence, the price for the lot shall be the next upward penny.

(3) No additional charge shall be made for wrapping any bottled beer to which this order applies, that will have been sold by the wholesaler for such case, crate, or carton may be added to the retail price of the beer.

(4) Where bottled beer is purchased by a retailer from another retailer the maximum price that may be charged by the purveyor for the beer shall not exceed the amount that would have been charged if the beer had been purchased from a wholesaler.

(5) No charge may be made by a wholesaler to a retailer in respect of any bottled beer other than the charges specifically authorised by this order to be included in the price charged by a retailer shall be included by the retailer in the price charged by him to the purchaser of the beer.

Special Prices Where Extraordinary Charges Incurred

6. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this order, and subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any retailer may authorise special maximum prices in respect of any bottled beer to which this order applies where special circumstances exist or for any reason extraordinary charges (freight or otherwise) are incurred by the retailer. Any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to a specified lot or consignment of bottled beer or may relate generally to all bottled beer to which this order applies sold by the retailer while the approval remains in force.

Dated at Wellington this 11th day of November 1959.

The seal of the Price Tribunal was affixed hereto in the presence of—

S. T. Barnett, President.
R. D. Christie, Member.
F. F. Simmons, Member.
