

CHARGES FOR CHILDREN

8. The charges fixed by the foregoing provisions of this order are fixed with respect to adults and children not less than 10 years of age. The maximum charges that may be made with respect to children under 10 years of age shall be:

- (a) For children under two years: No charge;
- (b) For children two years and under five years: One-quarter the charges fixed by this order;
- (c) For children five years and under 10 years: One-half the charges fixed by this order.

9. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this order, the Tribunal, on application by the licensee of any hotel or on its own initiative, may regrade any hotel to a higher or lower grade or may assign a grade to any hotel that is ungraded and, upon the grade of any hotel being altered pursuant to this clause, this order shall be read and construed as if the name of the hotel were included in the Schedule hereto and the altered grade specified therein in respect of the hotel.

10. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this order and subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any licensee, may authorise special maximum prices in respect of any services to which this order applies where special circumstances exist or for any reason extraordinary charges are incurred by the licensee. Any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to a particular service or may relate generally to all services, to which this order applies, rendered by the licensee while the approval remains in force.
