

ORDER

1. This order may be cited as the New Zealand Industries Fair Order 1961.

2. In this order, unless the context otherwise requires,—
“The Act” means the Exhibitions Act 1910;

“The promoter” means the Canterbury Manufacturers’ Association (Incorporated);

“The exhibition” means a public exhibition of works of industry and art, to be conducted by the promoter at the Canterbury Court Showgrounds, Addington, Christchurch, from the 17th day of August 1961 to the 2nd day of September 1961 (both inclusive), and to be known as the New Zealand Industries Fair 1961.

3. The exhibition is hereby authorised, and declared to be an exhibition within the meaning of the Act.

4. Subject to the conditions set out in the Schedule hereto, the following provisions are hereby suspended in so far as they relate to work done or business conducted or services rendered in the said premises during the period of the exhibition, by or on behalf of the promoter, or by or on behalf of any exhibitor at the exhibition, or by any person employed in or about the exhibition, namely—such of the provisions of—

(a) The Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1954 and all awards and industrial agreements in force thereunder;

(b) The Shops and Offices Act 1955; and

(c) The Factories Act 1946,—

as relate to the hours of commencing or ceasing work, or to the issue of permits, or to the payment for overtime, or extended hours, or to holidays, and half-holidays, or to the closing of shops.

SCHEDULE

1. Eight hours shall constitute a day’s work in or about the exhibition, and, with the exception set out in clause 2 hereof, the hours shall be worked consecutively.

2. No person shall be employed in or about the exhibition for more than four hours without an interval of at least three-quarters of an hour for a meal.

3. Any person employed during any day in or about the exhibition who is employed on that day for more than eight hours, or before the hour of 8 a.m., or after the hour of 10.30 p.m. (whether the excess employment is in or about the exhibition or otherwise) shall be paid for the excess employment at not less than half as much again as the ordinary rate for the first two hours and at not less than twice the ordinary rate thereafter, and any person employed in or about the exhibition on any day that would, but for the provisions of this order, have been a whole holiday for that person by virtue of any Act or of any award or industrial agreement shall be paid for all work done on that day at not less than twice the ordinary rate whether the work is performed wholly in or about the exhibition, or otherwise.

5. For the purposes of the enforcement of an award or industrial agreement any provision of which has been suspended by this order, any officer of the industrial union or association concerned who is authorised in writing in that behalf by the union or association shall be entitled to interview at his place of employment any person employed in or about the exhibition under that award or industrial agreement at such time or times as may be agreed upon between the officer and the employer of that person, and for this purpose any such officer shall be entitled at any time to have access to the Register of Passes issued by the promoter.

6. Nothing in this order shall be deemed to affect any provisions in an award or industrial agreement requiring workers subject to the award or industrial agreement to be members of a union.

T. J. SHERRARD, Clerk of the Executive Council.
