Declaring Land in the Hawke's Bay Acclimatisation District to be a Wildlife Sanctuary

COBHAM, Governor-General
 A PROCLAMATION

PURSUANT to the Wildlife Act 1953, I, Charles John, Viscount Cobham, the Governor-General of New Zealand, hereby proclaim and declare the area of land described in the Schedule hereto to be a wildlife sanctuary under the name of the Holt Forest Wildlife Sanctuary (hereinafter referred to as the sanctuary) for the purpose of the said Wildlife Act 1953, and further declare that the following conditions shall apply to the said sanctuary.

1. No person shall enter on the sanctuary or bring onto the sanctuary any domestic animal or domestic bird or any vehicle otherwise than in accordance with any rules or bylaws in that behalf made by the trustees of the sanctuary.

2. No person shall hunt or kill or disturb, molest, worry, harry, or otherwise interfere with any living creature within the sanctuary or take or capture any such living creature or take, destroy, disturb, or otherwise interfere with the nest, eggs, or spawn of any such living creature except pursuant to a written authority in that behalf issued by the Secretary for Internal Affairs and subject to such conditions as may be specified in such authority.

3. No person shall introduce into the sanctuary or liberate or allow to go at large within the sanctuary any living creature, or the eggs or spawn or any living creature, except pursuant to a written authority in that behalf issued by the Secretary for Internal Affairs and subject to such conditions as may be specified in such authority.

4. No person shall introduce or plant in the sanctuary any vegetation of any description or the seeds or spores of any vegetation, and no person shall burn or clear by any means whatsoever any vegetation except pursuant to a written authority in that behalf issued by the Director-General of Forests and subject to such conditions as may be specified in such authority.

5. No person shall camp on any part of the sanctuary or light fires or do anything likely to cause a fire within the sanctuary otherwise than in accordance with any rules or bylaws in that behalf made by the trustees of the sanctuary or pursuant to a written authority as described in clause 4 hereof.

6. No person shall bring into the sanctuary or any part thereof any firearm or explosive or use or discharge any firearm or explosive within the sanctuary except where the use of such firearm or explosive is authorised by the trustees of the sanctuary in consultation with the Secretary for Internal Affairs and the Director-General of Forests.

7. No person shall deposit any rubbish or leave any litter in the sanctuary.

8. Nothing in the foregoing shall apply to the following classes of persons:

(a) Officers of the Department of Internal Affairs while carrying out any work authorised by the Secretary for Internal Affairs;

(b) Officers of the New Zealand Forest Service while carrying out any work authorised by the Director-General of Forests;

(c) The trustees of the sanctuary.

9. The Secretary for Internal Affairs is hereby authorised to grant exemptions to any person or persons from all or any of the prohibitions or restrictions heretofore set out subject to such terms and conditions as he thinks fit.

10. In this Proclamation the term "Trustees of the Sanctuary" means the persons for the time being appointed as members of the Board of Trustees of the sanctuary pursuant to the Deed of Trust dated the 26th day of August 1960 vesting the land in the Board for the purposes of a sanctuary.
