In the matter of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 and in the matter of the estate of Harry Sproston Dudley, of Auckland, in New Zealand, importer, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Public Trustee as trustee of Harry Sproston Dudley, deceased, has filed in the Supreme Court Office at Auckland a motion for an order amending the scheme approved by a Judge of the Supreme Court relating to a charitable trust called the "Dudley Trust for Crippled Children". The said scheme provides that certain capital left by the will of the said deceased, which in the said scheme is called the Endowment Fund, may be used for acquisition of land and the erection of buildings and relative purposes, and that the income of the Endowment Fund shall be used to carry on the purposes of the charity under the scheme. The motion filed in the Supreme Court is for an amendment to the scheme to allow the said income, including income which has accrued since the 1st day of June 1956, to be applied for the purposes for which the Endowment Fund can be used, and to authorise from this income the repayment to the Auckland Branch of the New Zealand Crippled Children Society Incorporated the sum of £8,000 advanced by that society.

Notice is further given that the motion is to be heard by the Supreme Court at Auckland on Wednesday, the 15th day of May 1963, at 10 a.m., and any person desiring to oppose the scheme is hereby required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Auckland, and to the Public Trustee at the office of its solicitors under mentioned, and the Attorney-General, not less than seven clear days before the said date of hearing.
