WHEREAS the Dairy Production and Marketing Board claims that the Dairy Industry Account has not been receiving a fair return for butter sold for consumption within New Zealand: And whereas the New Zealand Government desires an equitable settlement of the Board's claim:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, I, Brigadier Sir Bernard Edward Fergusson, the Governor-General of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby appoint you, the said Arthur Tyndall, Leslie Carrick Nisbet, and Gordon Graham Gibbes Watson to be a Commission to inquire into and, after taking account of such circumstances as in your discretion you deem relevant, to report on the following matters:

- (2) Any adjustment which should be made to the return received by the Dairy Industry Account from the 1st day of August 1958 to the 31st day of May 1963 for butter sold for consumption within New Zealand:

And with the like advice and consent I do further appoint you, the said Arthur Tyndall, to be Chairman of the said Commission:

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorised and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry under these presents, in accordance with the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908 at such times and places as you deem expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force, and the inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or place to place:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose, save to me in pursuance of these presents or by my direction, the contents or purport of any report so made or to be made by you or any evidence or information obtained by you in the exercise of the powers hereby conferred upon you except such evidence or information as is received in the course of a sitting open to the public:

And it is hereby declared that the powers hereby conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the absence at any time of any one of the members hereby appointed:

And it is hereby further declared that you have liberty to report your proceedings and recommendations under this Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do:

And using all due diligence, you are required to report to me in writing under your hands not later than the 31st day of July 1963, your findings and opinions on the matters aforesaid, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof.
