

Uniting the South Taranaki and Opunake Electric Power Districts to Form the Egmont Electric Power District

BERNARD FERGUSSON, Governor-General
A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS by Proclamation dated the 24th day of April 1925, and published in the Gazette on the 30th day of April in that year, the South Taranaki Electric Power District as therein described was duly constituted as an electric power district within the meaning of the Electric Power Boards Act 1925:

And whereas by Proclamation dated the 9th day of August 1921, and published in the Gazette on the 18th day of August in that year, the Opunake Electric Power District as therein described was duly constituted as an electric power district within the meaning of the Electric Power Boards Act 1925:

And whereas the districts controlled by the South Taranaki Electric Power Board and the Opunake Electric Power Board have since the respective dates of the constitution of the Boards been extended, modified, and amended:

And whereas it is desirable to amalgamate the electrical undertakings and districts of the South Taranaki Electric Power Board and the Opunake Electric Power Board under a new electric power board to be hereby constituted under the Electric Power Boards Act 1925:

And whereas by special order of the South Taranaki Electric Power Board, confirmed on the 28th day of March 1963, and by special order of the Opunake Electric Power Board, also confirmed on the 28th day of March 1963, it was resolved that the amalgamation of the two Boards be recommended:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the Electric Power Boards Act 1925, I, Brigadier Sir Bernard Edward Fergusson, the Governor-General of New Zealand, with the approval of the Executive Council, hereby declare as follows:

1. The South Taranaki and Opunake Electric Power Districts shall be united on the 29th day of June 1963, to form one district to be known as the Egmont Electric Power District.

2. The district so formed shall consist of the area described in the First Schedule hereto.

3. The outer area of the district so formed shall consist of the area described in the Second Schedule hereto.

FIRST SCHEDULE
