

NEW ZEALAND SOCIETY OF ACCOUNTANTS AMENDMENT ACT 1963

THE provisions of this Act, which comes into force on 1 April next, restrict the right to commence the public practice of accountancy under a designation including the term "accountant" to members of the Society or of a body recognised by the New Zealand Society of Accountants. Provision is also made for persons so practising for a period of 12 months in the three years prior to the passing of the Act to obtain a licence from the Society to continue to do so under their present designation, subject to their arranging a fidelity bond and to their observing the Society's Rules and code of professional conduct.

Persons who are not members of the Society who are practising as accountants and who wish to obtain a licence to continue to do so under their present designation are invited to communicate with the Society as soon as possible to enable completion of the necessary formalities at an early date.

Inquiries should be addressed to the Secretary, New Zealand Society of Accountants, P.O. Box 5039, Wellington C.1.

A W GRAHAM, Secretary.

Wellington, 10 March 1964.
