

in the month of November between the 15th day and the 30th day of that month in every year in which an election of the local authority member is to take place or at a meeting held not later than one month after the Returning Officer has given notice of an election to fill an extraordinary vacancy, by resolution allocate its prescribed number of votes to one of the candidates and lodge a sealed copy of such resolution with the Returning Officer within 48 hours after the passing of the resolution.

17. It shall be the duty of the Mayor, or the Chairman, as the case may be, of each local authority to cause meetings of such local authority to be held whenever necessary—

(a) For the purpose of nominating a candidate (such meetings to be held so that any nomination decided on can be lodged with the Returning Officer within the time specified by clause 15 hereof).

(b) For the purpose of conducting an election (such meetings to be held within the time specified by clause 16 hereof).

18. In the event of an equality of votes, the Returning Officer shall have a casting vote to enable the issue to be decided.

19. The Returning Officer shall give public notice of the result of the election and report such result to each local authority and to the Minister of Internal Affairs.

20. No failure on the part of any local authority to hold any meeting as hereby prescribed, or to carry at such a meeting a resolution allocating its votes, or to lodge a sealed copy of such resolution with the Returning Officer within the time hereby prescribed, or otherwise to exercise its power of voting shall affect the validity of any election.

21. Every city member shall be deemed to be elected when the notice of his election given by the Town Clerk is received by the Returning Officer, and every local authority member shall be deemed to be elected when public notice of the result of the election is given by the Returning Officer.

22. The Dunedin Metropolitan Fire Board Election Order 1954, published in Gazette No. 1, 7 January 1954, at page 27, is hereby revoked.

T. J. SHERRARD, Clerk of the Executive Council.
