OPEN SEASON FOR GAME
IN NORTH AND SOUTH ISLAND
ACCLIMATISATION DISTRICTS
Open Season for Game in Certain Acclimatisation Districts

IMPORTANT—The information published in this Gazette will contain details of the Minister's decision relating to game that may be hunted, the dates and shooting hours between which such game may be hunted, decoy limits, bag limits, and any amendments to the special conditions, possession limits, and closed game areas published in this Gazette. Acclimatisation societies are asked to ensure that all purchasers of shooting licences are placed in possession of a comprehensive statement of their rights, duties, and obligations during the shooting season.

Pursuant to the Wildlife Act 1953, the Minister of Internal Affairs declares an open season for certain kinds specified and in the acclimatisation districts specified in the First Schedule hereto except in the closed game areas specified in the Second Schedule hereto, during the periods and shooting hours set forth in relation to each district, subject to the special conditions and the special conditions specified in relation to each district; and hereby calls the attention of sportsmen and others to the daily game possession limits set forth in the Third Schedule hereto and to the provisions and matters set forth or referred to in the Fourth Schedule hereto. Any person hunting or killing game otherwise than in the terms of this notification (including the special conditions specified in relation to any acclimatisation district) is liable on conviction to a fine of £50.

Sunday, 2 May 1965: A number of game corresponding to the number specified in this notification as the daily bag limit in respect of grey, mallard, shoveler (or spoonbill), and paradise ducks.

Sunday, 2 May 1965: Twice the number of game specified for Saturday, 1 May 1965.

Every Subsequent Day: As for Saturday, 1 May 1965.

FOURTH SCHEDULE

The attention of sportmen and others is directed especially to the under-mentioned provisions of the Wildlife Act 1953 and the Wildlife Regulations 1955.

(Note: "Secretary" means the Secretary for Internal Affairs, and includes his deputy.)

MEANING OF POSSESSION

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 2a

"2a. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section, any animal or thing shall be deemed to be in the possession of any person when that person has, alone or jointly or in association with any other person, possession of or control over the animal or thing, or possession of or control over any vessel, vehicle, container, package, or place in or on which the animal or thing is.

"(2) In any proceedings for an offence against this Act or any regulations under this Act, being an offence relating to the possession by the defendant of more than a specified number of animals, then, in any case where the defendant is acting jointly or in association with one or more persons, the number of animals deemed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to be in the possession of the defendant for the purposes of those proceedings shall be ascertained by dividing by the number of persons acting jointly or in association the total number of animals found in the possession or under the control of the defendant and the other person or persons.

"(3) In any proceedings for an offence against this Act or any regulations under this Act, being an offence relating to the possession by the defendant of any animal or thing found in or on any vessel, vehicle, container, package, or place in the possession or under the control of the defendant, alone or jointly or in association with any other person or persons, he may be a good defence if the defendant satisfies the Court that—

(a) He did not know and had no reasonable opportunity of knowing that the animal or thing was in the possession or control of some other person in or on that vessel or vehicle or place; or

(b) In the case of any animal or thing found in or on any vessel or vehicle or place, the animal or thing was in the possession or control of some other person in or on that vessel or vehicle or place; or

"(c) In the case of an offence relating to the possession of more than a specified number of animals, he did not know and had no reasonable opportunity of knowing that the number of those animals in or on any vessel, vehicle, container, package, or place exceeded that specified number."

WILDLIFE REFUGES (PREVIOUSLY KNOWN AS SANCTUARIES)

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 14

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Land Act 1948, the Government Railways Act 1949, the Forests Act 1949, or any other Act affecting lands of the Crown, the Governor-General may from time to time, by proclamation, declare any area described in the Proclamation and available for the purpose, subject in the case of any land to the Crown, to the consent of the occupier, to be wildlife refuge for the purposes of this Act, and may in like manner revoke or amend any such Proclamation.

(1a) Where a wildlife refuge has been declared under subsection 1 of this section, the Governor-General may, by the Proclamation or Order in Council declaring the wildlife refuge, or by a subsequent Proclamation or Order in Council, prohibit or restrict the use of boats (including any launch, bost, canoe, or other similar craft, whether propelled by mechanical power or not) in the wildlife refuge or in any portion thereof, and by any person or classes of persons, as may be specified in the Proclamation or Order in Council.

(1b) Any prohibition or restriction under subsection 1A of this section may be absolute or conditional, and the Proclamation or Order in Council may authorise the Minister of Internal Affairs or the Secretary to grant exemptions from the prohibition or restriction.

(1c) Every person commits an offence against this Act who does any act that is for the time being prohibited by a Proclamation or Order in Council under subsection 1A of this section, that person having no reasonable opportunity of knowing that the act is prohibited by the Proclamation or Order in Council.

(5) While any Proclamation or Order in Council under subsection one A of this section or fails to comply in any respect with any condition imposed in any such Proclamation or Order in Council.

(1) The Minister, in notifying an open season for game, shall specify—

(a) The name and address of the person by whom the game was taken;

(b) The number of licences that may be used by any person for the purposes of hunting or killing any game.

(2) The number of decoys that may be used by any person for the purposes of hunting or killing any game.

(3) Every sanctuary constituted at the commencement of this Act by a Warrant under section six of the Animals Protection and Game Act 1921-22 shall be deemed to be a wildlife refuge for the purposes of this Act.

OPEN SEASON NOTIFICATIONS

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 16

(1) The Minister, in notifying an open season for game, shall specify—

(a) The name and address of the person by whom the game were taken;

(b) The number of the licences to hunt or kill game held by the person who took the game;

(c) The number of game which may be had in possession by any one person on any one day; but different numbers may, in the discretion of the Minister, be so specified in respect of different days in the open season.

(2) No person shall hunt or kill game, or during any open season have in his possession any game, otherwise than in terms of such a notification.

Provided that it shall be lawful for any person to have in his possession a number of game in excess of the number specified in such a notification, if the excess game were taken by some other person or persons and all the game in the possession of the first-mentioned person have affixed or tied thereto a label on which the following particulars are legibly written:

(a) The names and addresses of the persons by whom the game were taken; and

(b) The numbers of the licences to hunt or kill game held by those persons; and

(c) The name of the society by which those licences were issued; and

(d) The date or dates on which the game were taken.

Provided also that nothing in this subsection relating to the possession of game shall apply with respect to game placed in a freezing chamber or cool store in accordance with regulations made under this Act.

FEEDING OF GAME AREAS PROHIBITED

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 17

(1) No person shall, with the intention of attracting any game for the purpose of hunting or killing that game,—

(a) Cast, throw, or place, or cause or permit to be cast, thrown, or placed, or assist in casting, throwing, or placing, in or near the margin of any water (including any river, stream, lake, lagoon, pond, estuary, swamp, or other water, whether natural or artificially constructed) any corn, wheat, barley, maize, or other grain, or any products of grain, or any peas or any other food; or
Provided that nothing in this subparagraph shall be deemed to prevent any person from using any vessel for camping purposes or for the purpose of travelling generally or to any place where it is lawful to hunt game or of returning from such such place, or, subject to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph and the provisions of subsections (vi) of this paragraph, to prohibit shooting from a moored vessel or to prohibit the use of any vessel for the purpose of retrieving game that has been killed or wounded:

(vi) Any unmoored floating stand, hide, shelter, maimai, or lowe, or any unmoored boat artificially dressed or covered in any way:

(g) By any means spread oil on any water for the purpose of hunting or killing any game or for the purpose of preventing game from alighting on that water or any part thereof:

(h) Use any light for the purpose of hunting or killing any game.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (v) of subsection one of this section—

"Decoy" includes any dead game that is so placed or arranged as to simulate the appearance of live game:

"Row boat" means any vessel that for the time being is wholly propelled by oars or by hand:

"Vessels" includes any launch, boat, canoe, punt, or other similar craft, whether propelled by mechanical power or not.

Licences

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 19

(1) No person shall hunt or kill game of any species during an open season in any district unless he is the holder of a licence under this Act. Such licence shall authorise him to hunt or kill game of the species specified in the licence during that open season in any district.

(2) Except as provided in subsection three of this section, every person commits an offence against this Act who, not being the holder of such a licence, hunts or kills game during an open season.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this section, the occupier of any land, and the wife or husband and any son or daughter of the occupier, may, during an open season, hunt or kill on that land without a licence (but subject to all other restrictions imposed by or under this Act) any game that may lawfully be hunted or killed under a licence in the district within the boundaries of which that land is situated.

METHOD OF TAKING RESTRICTED

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 18

(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no person shall—

(a) Trap game in any manner whatever or take any game by means of traps or by any means other than by shooting with a shotgun:

Provided that a dog may be used in conjunction with a shotgun for the purpose of finding, flushing, or retrieving any game:

(b) Erect or set any trap, net, snare, or other device for the purpose of taking any game:

(c) Hunt or kill any game with—

(i) Any avisel gun or punt gun; or

(ii) Any rifle; or

(iii) Any automatic, auto-loading, or repeating shotgun, unless the magazine has been so adjusted in accordance with regulations under this Act that the gun is incapable of holding more than two cartridges at one time:

(iv) Any shotgun other than a shoulder gun; or

(v) Any shotgun gauge of which is greater than that known as twelve gauge:

(d) Use with any shotgun used for the purpose of hunting or killing game—

(i) Any apparatus used for the purpose of silencing the report of a shotgun; or

(ii) Any cylinder or mudhole or similar device in any lake, lagoon, pond, river, estuary, or other open water, whether natural or artificially constructed, unless the side of the cylinder or mudhole or device project not less than two feet above the surface of water; or

(iii) Any aircraft, motor vehicle, or other vehicle propelled by mechanical power.

Provided that nothing in this subparagraph shall be deemed to prevent any person from using any aircraft or vehicle for the purpose of flying over any place where he intends to hunt or kill game or of returning from any such place:

(iv) On any lake, lagoon, pond, river, estuary, or other water (whether natural or artificially constructed), any vessel (other than a rowboat) in driving, chasing, unduly disturbing, putting to flight, or stalking any game, whether by himself or by any other person;
SALE OF SHOOTING RIGHTS PROHIBITED
Wildlife Act 1953, Section 23

(2) No person shall sell or let for fee or reward any right to hunt or kill game on any land or on any water on or adjoining any land.

(3) Where any person for rent or other valuable consideration grants a lease or licence of any duration of land on which or on water adjoining which game is usually prevalent, he shall be deemed for the purposes of subsection two of this section to have let the right to hunt or kill game on that land or on that water, as the case may be, if the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, is satisfied that the sole or principal purpose of the lease or licence was to confer on the lessee or licensee the right to hunt or kill game on that land or water.

DISTURBING STOCK
Statutes Amendment Act 1947, Section 66 (1)

(1) Every person commits an offence and is liable to a fine of fifty pounds who, without the authority of the occupier, goes upon any private land with dog or firearm and disturbs any stock depastured thereon.

THE WILDLIFE REGULATIONS 1955
Licences and Licence Fees

6. Every applicant for a licence shall furnish his true full name and usual address to the person to whom the application is made, and that information shall be set out in the licence.

7. Every licence shall before issue be signed by the issuing agent by whom the licence is issued or by some person authorized by him to sign on his behalf.

8. No licence shall be valid unless it is in the proper form and has been completed in accordance with regulations 6 and 7 hereof and signed by the applicant, who shall, when those conditions have been complied with, become the licence holder for the purposes of the Act and of these regulations.

9. (1) Where any person commits a breach of the Act or of these regulations by which he is entitled under the Act, the Court in its discretion may, in addition to imposing a fine, declare void and of no effect any licence of that person, and the convicted person shall in such a case forthwith surrender the licence to the Court.

(2) The Court in its discretion may also, in addition to any other penalty, make an order prohibiting the issue of a licence to that person for any period not exceeding two years, and the person in respect of whom any such order is made shall not apply for or otherwise obtain any licence during that period. Any licence obtained by any such person during that period shall be void and of no effect.

12. Where under the provisions of section 61 (2) of the Act any person purporting to be the holder of a licence under these regulations has been completed in accordance with regulations 6 and 7 hereof and signed by the applicant, who shall, when those conditions have been complied with, become the licence holder for the purposes of the Act and of these regulations.

Restrictions on Methods of Taking Game

18. (1) No person shall use any artificial decoy for the purpose of hunting or killing game, unless that decoy is securely anchored.

(2) No person shall place any artificial decoy within 60 yards of any other artificial decoy already set out by any other person.

(3) Every person using artificial decoys shall prevent them from spreading over an area greater than 30 yards square and be so adjusted that the gun is incapable of holding more than two shells, as follows:

(a) In the case of an automatic or semi-automatic or auto-loading shotgun with a tubular magazine—

(i) By inserting a metal pin set transversely through the magazine and riveted at both ends;

(ii) By inserting a metal pin set transversely through the magazine and riveted at both ends;

(iii) By inserting a metal pin set transversely through the magazine and riveted at both ends;

(b) In the case of a repeating shotgun with a box magazine, by inserting a metal pin set transversely through the magazine and riveted at both ends;

(c) In the case of a repeating shotgun with a box magazine, by inserting a metal pin set transversely through the magazine and riveted at both ends;

(d) In the case of any automatic, semi-automatic, autoloading or repeating shotgun of any type other than those specified in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this regulation, it shall be rendered incapable of holding more than two shells by a method which will not allow of a change in the field.

Freezing Chambers and Canneries

22. In this Part of these regulations—

“Freezing chamber” means any freezing chamber, cool store, refrigerating works, cannery, or other plant or premises (not being a private dwellinghouse) where any game is frozen, canned, or otherwise preserved or treated or stored:

“Freezing season” includes the first three days next following the close of an open season.

23. No person shall place, or cause to be placed, in any freezing chamber any game except during the open season for that game in the district in which that game was hunted or killed.

24. No person shall place, or cause to be placed, or kept, any game in any freezing chamber except in accordance with the following conditions:

(a) The number of game which may at any one time be so placed or kept, or caused to be so placed or kept, by any one person shall not exceed twenty head in the aggregate:

(b) No game from which the legs have been removed shall be so placed or kept, or caused to be so placed or kept:

(c) No game shall be so placed or kept, or caused to be so placed or kept, unless there is affixed or tied thereto a label on which the following particulars are legibly written:

(i) The name and the address of the owner of the game;

(ii) The date on which the game was placed in the freezing chamber;

(iii) The number of the game licence (if any) of the owner of the game:

(iv) If the owner of the game is not the holder of a game licence, such particulars as will indicate the means or manner in which ownership was acquired:

(v) The name of the acclimatisation district in which the game was taken.

Taxidermists

29. No person shall hold in possession for the purpose of mounting, preserving, or curing any wildlife included in the First Schedule or Third Schedule to the Act, unless the wildlife has been taken or killed in the open season only for that wildlife or under the written authority of the Secretary. That authority shall be retained by the person in possession of the wildlife, and shall be produced on demand to any officer of the Department.

NOTE: The wildlife included in the First Schedule or Third Schedule of the Wildlife Act 1953 means all the game birds.

General

44. Every person commits an offence who commits a breach of or fails to comply with any provision of these regulations, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50, in addition to any other penalty to which he may be liable.

DAVID C. SEATH, Minister of Internal Affairs.
