ESTATE OF JANE MAITLAND THOMPSON, DECEASED

In the Supreme Court of New Zealand
 Northern District
 (Auckland Registry)

IN the matter of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and in the matter of the Estate of Jane Maitland Thompson, late of Auckland, spinster, deceased, and in the matter of an application by John Gruar Macky, John Warwick Smith, and Robert Lloyd Macky, the trustees of the Estate of Jane Maitland Thompson for an extension and variation of their powers therein, notice is hereby given that the trustees of the Estate of Jane Maitland Thompson, late of Auckland, spinster, deceased, have filed in the Supreme Court Office at Auckland, a motion for approval of a scheme to extend and vary the powers conferred upon the trustees by the will of the said Jane Maitland Thompson, dated the 1st day of March 1906. The said will gave the trustees the power to pay the income from the residuary estate to or for the support of such a home for incurables as may be approved by the trustees and which complied with certain conditions set out therein including in particular a condition limiting the powers of the trustees in that no portion of the deceased's estate was to be devoted to the erection of such home but only to its maintenance, the payment of expenses in connection therewith and of salaries of officers, attendants, and nurses thereof. The scheme now submitted for approval seeks extension or variation of such powers to enable the trustees to apply at any time and in their absolute discretion to be incorporated as a Charitable Trust Board under the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and further, to enable the trustees to apply the income arising from the residuary estate under the said will for the support, maintenance, improvement, reconstruction, extension, erection, replacement, or equipment of any home or homes or institution or institutions (including in particular the Knox Home) having for its or their purposes the care of certain classes of persons, namely, those who are either incurable, aged, infirm, or afflicted and which comply with certain conditions more particularly set out in the scheme herein, and further, to enable the trustees in their absolute and uncontrolled discretion and at any time and from time to time to apply the whole or any part of any such income to any one or more of such homes or institutions to the exclusion of any other or others and in particular to enable the trustees at any time and from time to time to appropriate the whole or any part of the future income of the residuary estate for a specified period not exceeding seven years at any one time to any particular home or institution for the purposes of any building in the course of or about to be erected, extended, or improved, and further, to enable the trustees to exercise those powers, supplementary to the extensions and variations set out above and pertaining to the administration of the residuary estate, which said supplementary powers are more particularly set out in the scheme herein.

Notice is further given that the application for approval of the scheme is to be heard by the Supreme Court, at Auckland, on Monday the 24th day of May 1965, at 10 a.m., and any person desiring to oppose the scheme is hereby required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, at Auckland, and to the said trustees at the office of its solicitors under mentioned and to the Attorney-General, not less than seven clear days before the said date of hearing.

Dated at Auckland this 6th day of April 1965.
