THE CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1957

In the Supreme Court of New Zealand

Northern District

(Auckland Registry)

In the matter of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 and in the matter of the estate of John Edward Elam, formerly of West Tamaki near Auckland, gentleman, deceased, notice is hereby given that Thomas Mandeno Thornton Jackson, Sir Gilbert Edward Archev, and James Humphrey Rose, the trustees of the estate of the above named, have filed in the Supreme Court at Auckland a motion for an order approving a scheme for the disposition of the property and income and for extending and varying the powers of trustees prescribing and varying the mode of administering the trust of the said will, it being alleged by the said trustees that it is impracticable or inexpedient to carry out the charitable purpose expressed in the will of the said John Edward Elam. The said scheme provides:

1. That the present trustees, Thomas Mandeno Thornton Jackson, of Auckland, solicitor, Sir Gilbert Edward Archev, of Auckland, retired museum director, and James Humphrey Rose, of Auckland, solicitor, shall continue as trustees and provide also for the appointment of their successors by the surviving or continuing trustees.

2. That a committee of management be appointed consisting of one person appointed by the Council of the Auckland Institute and Museum, one person appointed by the Mc Kelvie Trust Board, and two appointed by the trustees of the charity.

3. The income of the charity shall be applied in accordance with the directions of the committee of management for furtherance of education in art and design of students of both sexes attending the Elam School of Fine Arts of the University of Auckland or studying art and design at any other educational establishment or art class in the City of Auckland or within the metropolitan district of Auckland or within 40 miles thereof and in particular—

(a) May apply the income in furnishing and fitting up of a school or place for teaching;
(b) In giving scholarships and bursaries and may prefer students otherwise unable to obtain full advantage of art and design;
(c) To give awards and prizes;
(d) To purchase books and articles to assist in the teaching of art and design.

Notice is further given that the motion is to be heard by the Supreme Court at Auckland on Wednesday, the 1st day of September 1965, at 10 a.m., and any person desiring to oppose the scheme is hereby required to give notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Auckland and to the trustees at the office of their solicitor, under the provisions of section 38 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, not less than seven clear days before the said date of hearing.

Dated at Auckland this 19th day of July 1965.

JACKSON, RUSSELL, TUNKS AND WEST, Solicitors for the Trustees.

23 Shortland Street, Auckland.
