

suant to section 36 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, applied to the Supreme Court at Christchurch, for approval of a scheme for the disposition of certain capital assets and income now held by the said executors and trustees on the charitable trusts set out in the said wills and codicils. The said scheme provides for the sale of the principal capital asset, namely, a house property, and that thereafter the said executors and trustees should hold the proceeds of such sale together with certain other capital assets and income to be applied in building an additional wing to an existing home for elderly ladies owned and maintained by the Christchurch Presbyterian Social Service Association at Grigg Street, Ashburton, and to hold the ballance of funds then remaining for the payment of costs of the proceedings and to expend the income and/or capital thereof at the discretion of the said executors and trustees in providing comforts, gifts, equipment, amenities, furniture, furnishings, and the like for the inmates of the said home. A copy of the said scheme has been deposited in and may be inspected at the registry office of the Supreme Court, at Christchurch. It is proposed that the application for approval be heard at Christchurch on the 15th day of December, 1965, at 10 am.

Any person desiring to oppose the said scheme is required to give notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the said Court, and to the executors and trustees, and to the Attorney-General not less than seven clear days before the date proposed for the hearing of this application.
