Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963 and in the matter of an application by Hicks Smith and Sons Ltd., in respect of two books Nexus and Plexus both by Henry Miller.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

The tribunal has been called upon to consider an application made by Hicks Smith and Sons Ltd.—with the consent of the Minister of Justice—in respect of two books, Nexus and Plexus by Henry Miller—whether they are indecent or not, or alternatively for a decision as to the classification of each.

At the hearing we were informed that the Secretary for Justice did not desire to make any submissions; there was no appearance on behalf of the applicant.

We have considered both these books. Each is a hard back edition to be sold for something over one pound. We are not prepared to hold either to be indecent or to make any restriction on their sale. Each is a serious work by an author who has written much and has defined his attitude as loving the world of human beings wretched, botched and horrible though it may be. There are passages which might offend some readers but we do not think we should be warranted in condemning either as indecent.

We accordingly hold that neither book is indecent in terms of the Indecent Publications Act.

K. M. GRESSON, Chairman.
