Timber Preservation Regulations 1955—Branding and Identification of Preservative Treated Timber

PURSUANT to regulation 12 of the Timber Preservation Regulations 1955*, notice is hereby given that, subject to the exemptions provided herein, timber which has been preservative treated as provided in the said regulations shall be branded or identified in the manner herein described.

1. All preservative treated timber shall be branded on or at one end with a clearly legible brand in block letters not less than  $\frac{3}{8}$  in. high. The brand shall include the registered number of the plant allocated by the Timber Preservation Authority. Timbers exempt from this requirement are:

- Fence battens and droppers.
- Timber in sizes 2 in. by 1 in. section and less.
- Timber to be dressed or planer-gauged and branded in accordance with clause 4 (a), (b), or (c) at or adjacent to the treatment plant at which it is treated.

2. In the case of timber treated for ground contact use to comply with T.P.A. specification I and II (Group A timbers only) and specification III, an additional brand in the form of an "X" is to be placed immediately after the plant number.

3. Each piece of timber treated with a preservative which does not colour the timber shall have its surfaces coloured by a colouring material, approved by the Authority, added to the treating solution.

4. (a) All weatherboards and flooring shall be continuously branded on the back of the board.

(b) All scantlings and timber which are dressed or planer-gauged on at least one surface shall be continuously branded on at least one face.

(c) All other finishing lines shall be either continuously surface branded or surface branded within 6 in. of the end.

(d) All posts, poles, and piles shall be branded with an incised brand on one end or with a disc approved by the Authority and fixed above groundline.

(e) All surface branding shall be incised or branded with a permanent ink approved by the Authority and shall be in block letters not less than  $\frac{3}{8}$  in. high embodying the word "treated", together with, as a minimum, the number or trade
