CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1957

In the Supreme Court of New Zealand Northern District (Auckland Registry) No. M. 455/66

In the matter of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 and in the matter of the trusts of the Valley Road Church, Mount Eden

NOTICE is hereby given that Norman Rupert Jones, Thomas Gilbert Reynold Stevens, Samuel David Cooke, and Thomas Allen McClymont, the trustees of the property situated at the corner of Valley Road and Mount Eden Road in the Borough of Mount Eden, and known as the Valley Road Church, have filed, in the Supreme Court office at Auckland, a motion for approval of a scheme whereby the trustees aforesaid, being the registered proprietors of the said Church property, shall transfer the said property to the Baptist Union of New Zealand. It is further proposed, in terms of the said scheme, that, from and after the transfer of the said land to the Baptist Union aforesaid, the trustees shall be released from the trusts upon which they theretofore held the church property, and shall be indemnified for all acts done or suffered by them as trustees thereof. The scheme further proposes that the Baptist Union of New Zealand shall hold the said land upon certain trusts, more particularly set forth in the Second Schedule to the said scheme, which will enable the property to be used, occupied, and enjoyed as a place for the public worship of God, according to the usages of the denomination commonly called Baptists, but as an "open" Baptist Church, under the direction of the members of the Church for the time being there assembling for worship. The scheme goes on to provide for the proper administration of the Church and the effective maintenance of public worship therein, in accordance with the Articles of Faith as set forth in the First Schedule to the Baptist Union Incorporation Act 1923. Provision is also made in the scheme for the disposal of the Church property in the event of the Church being dissolved, or dispersed, and not again formed within six calendar months next thereafter, or if the stated public worship in the Church be discontinued for two years together.

Notice is further given that the application for approval of the scheme is to be heard by the Supreme Court at Auckland on Tuesday, the 25th day of October 1966, at 10 a.m., and any person desiring to oppose the scheme is hereby required to give written notice of his intention to
