Amendments to Rules of the Hawke's Bay Acclimatisation Society

PURSUANT to section 29 of the Wildlife Act 1953, the Minister of Internal Affairs hereby gives notice that he has approved Rule 8 of the Society's rules being revoked and the following Rule 8 enacted in substitution therefore:

COUNCIL

8. (1) The Society shall be governed by a Council of 15 members, who shall, so long as they continue to be members of the Society, hold office for two years, and a President. Those members and the President shall be elected from and by the general membership in accordance with subclause (2) of this rule and shall not be eligible for election unless they have their permanent and principal or only place of residence within the district.

(2) (a) Four members of the Council shall be elected from such members who have their permanent and principal or only place of residence in that part of the district north of a line commencing at the mouth of the Tutaekuri River and thence up the centre of the river to that point on the western boundary of the district adjacent to its source.

(b) Four members of the Council shall be elected from such members who have their permanent and principal or only place of residence in the balance of the County of Hawke's Bay.

(c) Four members of the Council shall be elected from such members who have their permanent and principal or only place of residence in that part of the district which is bounded in the north by the southern boundary of the County of Hawke's Bay and in the south by a line extending from the centre of Tunga Cove on a bearing of 270 degrees to the western boundary of the district.

(d) Three members of the Council shall be elected from such members who have their permanent and principal or only place of residence in the remaining part of the district.

(3) The President shall, so long as he continues to be a member of the society, hold office for two years. He shall be eligible for re-election by ballot of the general membership. If for any reason the position of President becomes vacant, the Council may elect one of its members to be President for the unexpired term.

(4) The Council at its first meeting following the annual general meeting shall elect such number of Vice-Presidents as it sees fit. The Vice-Presidents shall retire as Vice-Presidents at the next annual general meeting held after their election, but shall be eligible for re-election.

(5) At each annual general meeting the seven Councillors who have been longest on the Council without being re-elected shall retire but shall be eligible for re-election, but in the case of unequal numbers of representatives from any area half adjusted to the next whole figure shall retire in one year, and the balance in the year following. The vacancies created under this rule shall be filled by ballot as provided in Rule 9 hereof.
