Amendments to Rules of the Hawke's Bay Acclimatisation Society

PURSUANT to section 29 of the Wildlife Act 1953, the Minister of Internal Affairs hereby gives notice that he has approved rule 8 of the Society's rules being revoked and the following rule 8 enacted in substitution therefore.

COUNCIL

8. (1) The Society shall be governed by a Council of 16 members, who shall, so long as they continue to be members of the Society, hold office for two years, and a President. Those members and the President shall be elected from and by the general membership in accordance with subclause (2) of this rule and shall not be eligible for election unless they have their permanent and principal or only place of residence within the district.

(2) (a) Four members of the Council shall be elected from such members who have their permanent and principal or only place of residence in that part of the district north of a line commencing at the mouth of the Tutaekuri River and thence up the centre of the river to that point on the western boundary of the district adjacent to its source.

(b) Four members of the Council shall be elected from such members who have their permanent and principal or only place of residence in the balance of the County of Hawke's Bay.

(c) Four members of the Council shall be elected from such members who have their permanent and principal or only place of residence in that part of the district which is bounded in the north by the southern boundary of the County of Hawke's Bay and in the south by a line extending from the centre of Tungara Cove on a bearing of 270 degrees to the western boundary of the district.

(d) Four members of the Council shall be elected from such members who have their permanent and principal or only place of residence in the remaining part of the district.

(3) The President shall, so long as he continues to be a member of the Society, hold office for two years. He shall be eligible for re-election by ballot of the general membership. If for any reason the position of President becomes vacant, the Council may elect one of its members to be President for the unexpired term.

(4) The Council at its first meeting following the annual general meeting shall elect such number of Vice-Presidents as it sees fit. The Vice-Presidents shall retire as Vice-Presidents at the next annual general meeting held after their election, but shall be eligible for re-election.

(5) At each annual general meeting the eight Councillors who have been longest on the Council without being re-elected shall retire but shall be eligible for re-election, but in the case of unequal numbers of representatives from any area, half adjusted to the next whole figure shall retire in one year, and the balance in the year following. The vacancies created under this rule shall be filled by ballot as provided in rule 9 hereof.

(6) Vacancies on the Council caused by the retirement of members shall be filled from such members as will maintain the proportional or district representation as set out in subclause (2) of this rule.

(7) Where any member of the Council ceases to have his permanent and principal or only place of residence within the district he shall cease to be a member of the Council as from the commencement of the next annual general meeting.

(8) In the event of any member of the Council dying, resigning, or vacating his office, the Council may appoint to the vacancy any member of the Society who is available and eligible. Such appointee shall hold office for the balance of the term of his predecessor. Any such appointment shall maintain the proportional or district representation as set out in subclause (2) of this rule.

(9) A member of this Council shall vacate his office if he has absented himself from three consecutive meetings of the Council without leave of absence having been granted by the Council.

(10) An elected member or a member appointed to fill a vacancy under subclause (8) of this rule shall vacate his office if he ceases to be a member of the Society.

Dated at Wellington this 3rd day of February 1967.

DAVID C. SEATH, Minister of Internal Affairs.
