Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963 and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs in respect of the book Naked Lunch by William S. Burroughs of The Grove Press, New York, U.S.A.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

The book is a “paper back” which has sold widely in America. We are prepared to concede that the purpose of the author is a sincere one—his exploration of the foul and obscene in an effort to expose the evils of drug peddling and addiction may be valid. Nevertheless we find it has been organised with such gusto and so much revelling in sheer filth as to constitute an affront to decency. Whatever its literary value we consider that it is ruled out from indiscriminate circulation by considerations of the public interest. We hold the opinion that a book so revolting as this requires a great deal of positive evidence to show that there is some community value before it can be accepted. We accordingly hold it to be indecent.

17 November 1967.

K. M. GRESSON, Chairman.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963 and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of a book—The Story of O by Pauline Reage of The Grove Press, New York, U.S.A.

The book is in a hard back edition with a cover note that the sale of the book is limited to adults.

We are aware that The Story of O has been defended by critics of perception and ability. It is in the tradition of de Sade and as has been pointed out stresses the “bondage” theme between the sadistically dominant man and the masochistic submissive female. The book however exploits this theme so immoderately that it cannot be approved for general circulation. It is a work of virtuosity rather than of art and we do not think its circulation should be approved more widely than among professional psychiatrists and we so classify it accordingly.
