Decision of Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963 and in the matter of a reference to the Tribunal under s. 12 (1) of the said Act by the Magistrate's Court at Dunedin for a decision and report in terms of the said section in respect of the book—A History of Eroticism by Lo Duca, Jean-Jacques Pauvert, Paris 1961. Rodney Books, London, 1966.

DECISION AND REPORT

THE above book was seized under a search warrant issued under s. 25 (1) of the Act and Bernard Graham Lockhart trading as Jim's Bookshop was summoned before the Magistrate's Court at Dunedin to show cause why the book should not be destroyed. The question of its indecency having arisen in these proceedings the Tribunal is required to make a decision and report in terms of s. 12 (1) in respect of the said book.

At the hearing before the Tribunal the Police were represented by Mr Neazor of the Crown Law Office. In respect of this book he submitted that it should be classified as indecent, or indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age. No submissions were received by the Tribunal by or on behalf of Mr Lockhart.

The Tribunal decides and reports as follows:

"This book is one of the same series as Eros Modern Style which has already been considered by the Tribunal. It is a heavily illustrated translation and adaptation from a French work. There is no statement about the extent of the adaptation nor whether all, or to what extent, the illustrations appeared in the original edition. It is a scholarly work with quotations from classical and later writers, and with footnotes. The illustrations are not always related to the text and portray acts of indecency and even bestiality. It is a serious study, and the question for the Tribunal is whether its historical and literary value for unrestricted reading are outweighed by these matters. In the opinion of the Tribunal it is not suitable for unrestricted reading and it is therefore classified as indecent except in the hands of professional students of medicine, psychology, sociology, and fine arts."

L. G. H. SINCLAIR, Chairman.

22 May 1968.

Indecent Publications Tribunal

I, John Lochiel Robson, of Wellington, Secretary for Justice, hereby give notice that I have applied to the Indecent Publications Tribunal for a decision as to whether the book Querelle of Brest by Jean Genet, translated from the French by Gregory Streatham and published by Anthony Blond Ltd., 56 Doughty Street, London W.C. 1, is indecent or not or for a decision as to its classification.

Dated at Wellington this 27th day of May 1968.

J. L. ROBSON, Secretary for Justice.
