Remembrance Day 1968

CITIZENS and traffic control authorities throughout New Zealand are requested to observe Remembrance Day on Sunday, 10 November 1968. This year the day has special significance as it is the fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the armistice which marked the end of the First World War.

The observance of this day should, in general, be similar to that of Remembrance Day last year. Two minutes' silence should be observed from 11 a.m. and all vehicular traffic should halt during that period.

The Government trusts that churches will agree to arrange, as far as practicable, for a morning service on this day to be commenced at such time as to enable 2 minutes' silence to be observed at 11 o'clock.

Where a citizens' memorial service is held, it is suggested that it should be at the local cenotaph or war memorial.

Dated at Wellington this 24th day of October 1968.

J. R. MARSHALL, Acting Prime Minister.
