

My Government anticipates that during this Session you will complete the consideration of measures which have been studied by Select Committees during the Recess. These include the Status of Children Bill, the Mental Health Bill and the Food and Drug Bill.

I commend all these matters to your careful consideration and I pray that Divine guidance will attend your deliberations.