PAPAKURA BOROUGH COUNCIL

Town and Country Planning Act 1953

In the matter of an application for a variation of the purposes of the trust of and on the estate of Robert Campbell, late of St. Clair, Dunedin, deceased, under section 35 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957: Whereas by virtue of the will of Robert Campbell, late of St. Clair, Dunedin, deceased, who died on the 18th day of November 1904, James Gray, of Dunedin, agricultural implement manufacturer, and James Small, of Dunedin, builder, were appointed executors and trustees of the said will; and whereas the said will provided for a trust in perpetuity under the name of "Campbell Convalescent Home," subject to a certain annuity, for the founding and establishing a home to be used as a place of temporary residence for poor invalid females above the age of 38 years being members of the Presbyterian Church in Otago and Southland who have been resident for not less than 5 years immediately preceding admission within that area; and whereas, pursuant to section 35 of the above Act, the Otago Foundation Trust Board, being the present trustee of the will of the said deceased, pursuant to a deed of appointment of new trustees, dated the 10th day of October 1964, applied to the Supreme Court at Dunedin for approval of a motion to vary the trusts, and the powers of the trustees or trustee subject to the annuity provided by the will of the said deceased, wherein the said The Otago Foundation Trust Board proposed that the terms of the said trust be varied as follows:

A. Purposes of Trust—To provide or contribute towards the provision of a place of residence for persons over the age of 38 years who for not less than 2 years preceding admission have been resident in the area now comprising Otago and Southland, and in the opinion of the trustees or trustee will benefit therefrom with priority being given to members of the Presbyterian Church who are female in indifferent health and without substantial means.

B. Powers of Trustees or Trustee—To hold the capital as well as the income now comprising the assets of the trust for the purposes of the trust herein set forth with the following powers all or any of which powers may be exercised from time to time in respect of the whole or any part of the assets of the said assets by the trustees or trustee at their her or his absolute discretion for the better management of the said assets and so that the community may derive the fullest benefit therefrom:
(a) To convert the whole or any part or parts of the said assets into money and to invest and reinvest in any mode of trustee security for the time being authorised by the law of New Zealand or in any mode of investment at present comprising an asset of the trust notwithstanding that it is not or may not be so authorised.

(b) To buy sell exchange or otherwise dispose of any personal property or the freehold or any lesser estate in real property.

(c) To maintain and demolish existing and future buildings and to erect and re-erect either in their stead or anew.

(d) To borrow money either without security or by the giving of security over all or any of the said assets by entering into a mortgage or assignment thereof or any agreement so to do.

(e) To manage the said assets so that the community may derive the fullest benefit therefrom and to that end to employ any agent or agents and to do so either alone or if the trustees or trustee deem it best for the furtherance of the purposes hereof along with any other person persons organisation or organisations whose objects or purposes are in the opinion of the trustees or trustee in whole or in part similar to the purposes hereof.

C. Proviso—The powers herein shall be exercised as aforesaid by the trustees or trustee under the name or style of "Campbell Convalescent Home Trust".

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to section 54 of the above Act, that, on Friday the 23rd day of May 1969, an order was made in the Supreme Court, Dunedin, varying the said trusts.

DATED this 30th day of May 1969.
