

101. The Committee shall give 10 days' notice in writing (or such lesser time as the Committee and member agree) to a member against whom a complaint or charge has been made specifying the nature of such complaint or charge and the date place and time of the meeting of the Committee called to consider the matter. At such meeting the member concerned shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard. A country member may submit his representations in writing. The Committee shall be entitled to regulate its own procedure for the hearing of any complaint or charge.

102. Any fine imposed under these rules shall not exceed in cases where another is fixed be less than $50 or more than $1,000 and in cases of a continuous offence shall be not less than $10 or more than $50 for each day during which such offence continues. In addition the member in default may be also directed to pay the reasonable costs of the hearing or investigation of any charge under the rules of which he is found to be guilty.

103. Any member of the Exchange who shall fail to observe or be bound by the terms of any decision or ruling of the Committee or of the Exchange or the spirit or intention thereof relative to the conduct by the members of the Exchange of their business as such members or to their dealings with one another as such members or relative to other matters arising out of the objects or purposes of the Exchange shall be deemed guilty of conduct unworthy of a member, and be dealt with in manner provided by rule 100.

104. If a fine imposed on any member by the Committee or by a General Meeting of members is not paid within 7 days or within such extended time as the Committee may fix the member in default may be declared by the Committee to be in default and he shall from the date of such declaration be deemed to have ceased to be a member and his interest in membership to have been forfeited to the Exchange and such forfeited interest shall thereupon be dealt with under rule 72.

105. A member or his partner or clerk being a member shall not vote at any meeting at which a charge affecting such member is under consideration.

106. The Committee for the time being may in their absolute discretion and in such manner as they may think fit notify or cause to be notified to the public that any member has been expelled or has been declared a defaulter or has been suspended or has ceased to be a member. No action or other proceedings shall under any circumstances be maintained by the person referred to in such notification against any member or official publishing or circulating the same and this rule shall operate as leave and authority to any member or official to publish or circulate such notification and be pleadable accordingly.

107. A member under suspension shall not attend any meeting of the Exchange unless by leave of the Chairman and then only for the purpose of speaking on a motion that he be fined or expelled and having spoken he must withdraw. Such member shall not be entitled to vote.

Holidays

108. The official holidays to be observed by all members of the Exchange shall be those fixed by the Committee of the Association. Special holidays shall not be declared except by a special resolution of members. The Exchange shall not open on any public holiday unless a special resolution of members to so open has been passed.

Alteration of Rules

109. These rules or any of them may be altered by way of repeal, amendment, addition, or otherwise by a special resolution passed in the manner of a special resolution save that not less than 21 clear days' notice of the intention to propose the resolution shall have been duly given.

Notice of any resolution for alteration of these rules shall be given to the Secretary and a general meeting of members may thereupon be called to consider the proposed alteration. The notice convening a general meeting shall contain a copy of the resolution to be submitted to the meeting and such resolution may be passed in amended form only if in the opinion of the Chairman of the meeting the amendment does not substantially alter the character and purpose of the original resolution. The accidental omission to deliver or to post a notice to any member shall not invalidate any proceedings taken or resolution passed at the meeting. No proposed amendment or repeal of or addition to these rules if rejected shall be entertained again for 6 months.

Association Rules

110. These rules shall to the extent hereinafter mentioned be read with and subject to the rules and regulations of the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand for the time being in force.

All rules and regulations of the aforesaid Association for the time being in force affecting or intended to affect govern or bind exchanges affiliated thereto shall be deemed to be rules of this Exchange and shall be binding upon all persons associations and bodies in the like manner and to the like extent as if the same were embodied in and set forth in these rules as rules of this Exchange.

If and when any rule or portion of any rule of the Exchange conflicts or is inconsistent with any rule or regulation for the time being of the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand then such last-mentioned rule or regulation shall in so far as the rule of this Exchange is in conflict or inconsistent with it override such conflicting or inconsistent rule of this Exchange and shall for all purposes be deemed to be a rule of this Exchange.

Transition Provision

111. The first office bearers of the company shall be the members of the Committee of the Auckland Stock Exchange in office at the date of incorporation of the company who shall continue in office as the office bearers of the company and all offices, appointments, registers, records, instruments, and generally all acts of authority that originated under the previous rules of the Auckland Stock Exchange and are subsisting and in force on the date of incorporation are hereby adopted by the company.

Approved in Council: 7 July 1969.

P. J. BROOKS, Clerk of the Executive Council.
