Merger of the Electric Supply Districts of the Taranaki Electric Power Board and the Inglewood Borough Council

ARTHUR PORRITT, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government House at Wellington this 16th day of March 1970

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL

Pursuant to the Electricity Distribution Commission Act 1967, His Excellency the Governor-General, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following order.

O R D E R

1. MERGER OF DISTRICT

The licensed area of supply of the Inglewood Borough Council, as defined in the Inglewood Borough Council Electric Lines Licence dated 18 June 1958 and published in the New Zealand Gazette on 19 June 1958, at p. 800, is hereby included and merged in the Taranaki Electric Power Board's electric power district. For the purposes of the Electric Power Boards Act 1925, this merger shall be deemed also to have been effected under that Act.

2. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SUPPLY AUTHORITY

Pursuant to section 34 of the Electricity Distribution Commission Act 1967, the Taranaki Electric Power Board shall exercise all rights and undertake all obligations previously exercised by the Inglewood Borough Council in carrying on its electricity undertaking.

3. REPRESENTATION

As from the date of merger, the Borough of Inglewood shall become a constituent district of the Taranaki Electric Power Board, which from that date shall consist of 12 members. The Taranaki Electric Power District Representation Order 1965, published in the New Zealand Gazette of 14 April 1965, at p. 521, is hereby amended by the addition of the following to the Schedule thereto:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Constituent District</th>
<th>Number of Representatives</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Inglewood Borough</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The first representative of the Borough of Inglewood on the Taranaki Power Board shall be appointed by the Inglewood Borough Council and shall hold office until the next triennial local body election. All subsequent representatives of the borough shall be elected by the electors of the Borough of Inglewood.

4. PURCHASE PRICE

The Taranaki Electric Power Board shall pay to the Inglewood Borough Council the sum of $83,986 for the purchase of the Council's electricity undertaking, property, and assets as defined in the First Schedule attached hereto, provided that the said amount of $83,986 be increased by the amount of any capital expenditure put into the said electricity undertaking, property, and assets between 1 April 1969 and the date of completion of this sale and purchase.

5. DISPOSITION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

As from the date of completion the Taranaki Electric Power Board shall take over from the Inglewood Borough Council the electricity undertaking, property and assets described in the First Schedule. All liabilities incurred by the Inglewood Borough Council up to the date of completion shall remain liabilities of the Council only.

6. TARIFFS

As from the date of completion the charges payable by consumers (including the Council) of electrical power in the district of Inglewood Borough shall be the charges payable by consumers in the Power Board's district.

7. STAFF

The Taranaki Electric Power Board shall continue to employ, as required by the Local Authorities (Employment Protection) Act 1963, all those persons employed in the Inglewood Borough Council's electricity undertaking who elect to continue in that employment.

8. DATE OF COMPLETION

The date of completion of the above sale and purchase shall be 31 March 1970, and the merger shall come into force on that date. Possession of all property included in the sale shall be taken on that date.

SCHEDULE

Description of the electricity undertaking, property, and assets of the Inglewood Borough Council to be purchased by the Taranaki Electric Power Board:

The whole of the Council's electricity undertaking for the supply of electricity to the citizens of the Borough of Inglewood, together with all the property and assets, whether real or personal, and all stock, chattels, and things, and all rights of all kinds belonging to or held or used by the Council in connection with the said electricity undertaking: excluding, however, the following property and assets, which shall remain the property of the Council, namely:

1. The Inglewood Borough Council's Electricity Department's Depreciation Fund.
2. All moneys standing to the credit of any bank account of the Inglewood Borough Electricity Department at the date of completion, and all cash in hand held by the Inglewood Borough Council at that date.
3. All debts owing to the Council in respect of its said electricity undertaking at the date of completion.
4. All office furniture and equipment as shown in the Council's Electricity Department balance sheet as at 31 March 1969, valued at $1,659.68.

P. J. BROOKS, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Open Season for Game in Certain Acclimatisation Districts

IMPORTANT—The information published in this Gazette, will be published in like form in 1975. In the intervening years this Gazette will contain details of the Minister’s decision relating to game that may be hunted, the dates and shooting hours between which such game may be hunted, decoy limits, bag limits, and any amendments to the special conditions, possession limit, and closed game areas published in this Gazette. Acclimatisation societies are asked to ensure that all purchasers of shooting licences are placed in possession of a comprehensive statement of their rights, duties, and obligations during the shooting season.

Pursuant to the Wildlife Act 1953, the Minister of Internal Affairs declares an open season for game of the kinds specified and in the acclimatisation districts specified in the First Schedule hereto except in the closed game areas specified in the Second Schedule hereto, during the periods and shooting hours set forth in relation to each district, subject to the decoy limits and the special conditions specified in relation to each district; and hereby calls the attention of sportsmen and others to the daily game possession limits set forth in the Third Schedule hereto and to the provisions set forth or referred to in the Fourth Schedule hereto. Any person hunting or killing game otherwise than in the terms of this notification (including the special conditions specified in relation to any acclimatisation district) is liable on conviction to a fine of $100.

Third Schedule

Game Possession and Possession

Meaning of Possession

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 2a

2a. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section, any animal or thing shall be deemed to be in the possession of any person when that person has, alone or jointly or in association with any other person, possession of or control over the animal or thing, or possession of or control over any vessel, vehicle, container, package, or place in or on which the animal or thing is.

(2) In any proceedings for an offence against this Act or any regulations under this Act, being an offence relating to the possession by the defendant of more than a specified number of animals, then, in any case where the defendant is acting jointly or in association with one or more other persons, the number of animals deemed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to be in the possession of the defendant for the purposes of those proceedings shall be ascertained by dividing by the number of persons acting jointly or in association with the total number of animals found in the possession or under the control of the defendant and the other person or persons or in or on any vessel, vehicle, container, package, or place in the possession or under the control of the defendant and the other person or persons.

(3) In any proceedings for an offence against this Act or any regulations under this Act, being an offence relating to the possession of any animal or thing found in or on any vessel, vehicle, container, package, or place in the possession or under the control of the defendant, alone or jointly or in association with any other person, it shall be a good defence if the defendant satisfies the Court that—

(a) He did not know and had no reasonable opportunity of knowing that the animal or thing was in or on the vessel, vehicle, container, package, or place; or

(b) In the case of any animal or thing found in or on any vessel or vehicle or place, the animal or thing was in the possession of some other person in or on that vessel or vehicle or place; or

(c) In the case of an offence relating to the possession of more than a specified number of animals, he did not know and had no reasonable opportunity of knowing that the number of those animals in or on any vessel, vehicle, container, package, or place exceeded that specified number.

Wildlife Refuges (Previously Known as Sanctuaries)

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 14

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Land Act 1948, the Government Railways Act 1949, the Forests Act 1949, or any other Act affecting lands of the Crown, the Governor-General may from time to time, by Proclamation, declare any area described in the Proclamation and available for the purpose, subject in the case of any land other than unoccupied land of the Crown to the consent of the occupier, to be a wildlife refuge for the purposes of this Act, and may in like manner revoke or amend any such Proclamation.

(1A) Where a wildlife refuge has been declared under subsection (1) of this section, the Governor-General may, by the Proclamation or Order in Council declaring the wildlife refuge, or by a subsequent Proclamation or Order in Council, prohibit or restrict the use of boats (including any launch, boat, canoe, or other similar craft, whether propelled by mechanical power or not) in the wildlife refuge, or in any portion thereof, and by any person or classes of persons, as may be specified in the Proclamation or Order in Council.

(1B) Any prohibition or restriction under subsection (1A) of this section shall continue in force until revoked, cancelled, or amended by the Governor-General, or by a subsequent Proclamation or Order in Council.

(2) No person shall hunt or kill game, or during any open season have in his possession any game, otherwise than in terms of such a notification:

Provided that it shall be lawful for any person to have in his possession a number of game in excess of the number specified in such a notification, if the excess game were taken by some other person or persons and all the game in the possession of the first-named person have affixed or tied thereto a label on which the following particulars are legibly written:

(a) The names and addresses of the persons by whom the game were taken; and

(b) The numbers of the licences to hunt or kill game held by those persons; and

(c) The name of the society by which those licences were issued; and

(3) The date or dates on which the game were taken:

Provided also that nothing in this subsection relating to the possession of game shall apply with respect to game placed in any freezing chamber or cool store in accordance with regulations made under this Act.

Feeding of Game Areas Prohibited

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 17

(1) No person shall, with the intention of attracting any game for the purpose of hunting or killing that game,—

(a) Cast, throw, or place, or cause or permit to be cast, thrown, or placed, or to assist in casting, throwing, or placing, in any place near the margin of any water (including any river, stream, lake, lagoon, pond, estuary, swamp, or other water, whether natural or artificially constructed) any corn, wheat, barley, maize, or other grain, or any products of grain, or any peas or any other food; or

(b) Plant or place in or on any land any corn, wheat, barley, maize, or other grain, or any products of grain, or any peas or any other food and thereafter flood that land to form an artificial lake, lagoon, or pond.

(2) Where any society has reason to believe that food of any of the kinds referred to in subsection (1) of this section has been cast, thrown, placed, or planted in any place referred to in that subsection within the period of 1 month immediately preceding an open season for game in that place, and the consent of the occupier of the land has not been obtained, the society may serve written notice upon him requiring him to inform the society of the date of the erection or affixing of that notice. If the occupier of the land does not consent to the erection or affixing of such a notice, the society may serve written notice requiring him to inform all persons entering upon his land for the purpose of hunting or killing game that food has been cast, thrown, placed, or planted in that place.

(3) Every person commits an offence against this Act who during any open season hunts or kills game in any place—

(a) In which, or in the near vicinity of, which there is a notice under subsection (2) of this section erected or affixed during that open season or within the period of 1 month immediately preceding that open season; or

(b) In which the occupier of the land has informed him that any such food has been cast, thrown, placed, or planted during that open season or within the period of 1 month immediately preceding that open season; or

(c) In which he otherwise knows any such food has been cast, thrown, placed, or planted during that open season or within the period of 1 month immediately preceding that open season.

(4) Every person commits an offence against this Act who destroys, defaces, or in any way tampers with any notice affixed under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section.

(5) Every person commits an offence against this Act who, being an occupier of land and having been served with a written notice under subsection (2) of this section requiring him to inform other persons that food has been cast, thrown, placed, or planted in any place on that land, fails to comply with the terms of that notice.

Method of Taking Restricted

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 18

(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no person shall—

(a) The particular species or sex of game that may be hunted or killed during that open season:

(b) The areas (if any) declared to be closed game areas:

(bb) The number of decoys that may be used by any person for the purposes of hunting or killing game:

(c) The number of game that may be taken or killed by any person on any one day:

(cc) The number of game which may be had in possession by any one person in any one day; but different numbers may, in the Minister's discretion, be so specified in respect of different days in the open season:

(d) Such other conditions (if any) as he thinks fit to impose respecting the hunting or killing during that open season of game or any particular species or sex thereof.

Open Season Notifications

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 16

(1) The Minister, in notifying an open season for game, shall specify—

(a) The particular species or sex of game that may be hunted or killed during that open season:
(a) Trap game in any manner whatever or take any game by shooting with a shotgun.

(b) Except to set any trap, net, snare, or other device for the purpose of taking any game.

(c) Hunt or kill any game with—

(i) Any firearm or punt gun; or

(ii) A shotgun having a magazine of any type, unless the magazine is so adjusted in accordance with regulations made under this Act that the magazine is incapable of holding more than one shell; or

(iv) Any shotgun other than a shoulder gun; or

(v) Any shotgun the gauge of which is greater than that known as 12 gauge.

(d) Use with any shotgun used for the purpose of hunting or killing game—

(i) Any apparatus used for the purpose of silencing the report of a shotgun; or

(ii) Any cartridge of a length exceeding 24 inches.

(e) In hunting or killing any game from any stand, hide, shelter, blind, mughole, boat, louvre, or other contrivance, use any more than one shotgun.

(f) For the purpose of hunting or killing any game use—

(i) Any live decoy; or

(ii) A dog trained for the purpose of retrieving game.

(iii) Any cylinder or mughole or similar device in any lake, lagoon, pond, river, estuary, or other open water, when it is airborne and whether its wings are in motion or not.

(iv) Any aircraft, motor vehicle, or other vehicle propelled by mechanical power:

Provided that nothing in this subparagraph shall be deemed to prevent any person from using any aircraft or vehicle for the purpose of travelling generally or to any place where he intends to hunt or kill game or of returning from any such place; or

(v) Any lake, pond, river, estuary, or other water (whether natural or artificially constructed), any vessel (other than a rowboat) in driving, chasing, unduly disturbing, putting to flight, or stalking any game, whether by himself or by any other person:

Provided that nothing in this subparagraph shall be deemed to prevent any person from using any vessel for carriage purposes or for the purpose of travelling generally or to any place where he intends to kill or hunt game or of returning from any such place; or

(vi) Any unmoored floating stand, hide, shelter, mughole, or any unmored floating boat articially constructed or covered in any way:

(g) By any means spread oil on any water for the purpose of hunting or killing any game or for the purpose of preventing any game from alighting on that water or any part thereof:

(h) Use any light for the purpose of hunting or killing any game.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (f) of subsection (1) of this section—

(a) A bird shall be deemed to be not in flight at any time when it is alighting on or rising from any water or land or any vegetation or structure in or on any water or on any land and any part of the bird is in contact with the water or land or vegetation or structure:

(b) Subject to paragraph (c) of this subsection, a bird shall be deemed to be in flight in all times when it is airborne including times when it is soaring or banking or swooping, and whether its wings are in motion or not.

(c) Induce any other person to hunt or kill game for the purposes of sale or have any game or the eggs of any game in his possession:

(d) Buy or sell any game or the eggs of any game:

(e) For sale or for hire, gain, or reward, or hope thereof, hunt or kill any game or have any game or the eggs of any game in his possession:

(f) Buy or sell game held for the purpose of propagating game or reared pursuant to any such authority, or to take and sell or to buy the eggs of any game to which any such authority relates.

Sale of Shooting Rights Prohibited

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 23

(1) Except with the prior consent of the Secretary, no person shall—

(a) Buy or sell any game or the eggs of any game:

(b) For sale or for hire, gain, or reward, or hope thereof, hunt or kill any game or have any game or the eggs of any game in his possession:

(c) Induce any other person to hunt or kill game for the purposes of sale or have any game or the eggs of any game in his possession:

(d) Buy or sell any game or the eggs of any game to which any such authority relates.

Sale of Shooting Rights Prohibited

Wildlife Act 1953, Section 23

(2) No person shall sell or let for fee or reward any right to hunt or kill game on any land or on any water on or adjoining any land.

(3) Where any person for rent or other valuable consideration grants a lease or licence of any duration of land on which or on which water adjoining which game is usually prevalent, he shall be deemed to have granted any right to hunt or kill game on that land or on that water, as the case may be, to the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, is satisfied that the sole or principal purpose of the lease or licence was to confer on the lessee or licensee the right to hunt or kill game on that land or water.

Disturbing Domestic Animals

Trespass Act 1968, Section 5

5. Every person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $500 who goes on to any private land without the authority of the occupier or any other lawful authority, and—

(a) By means of dog, firearm, or vehicle disturbs any domestic animal thereon; or

(b) Wilfully or recklessly disturbs any domestic animal thereon.

The Wildlife Regulations 1955

Licences and Licence Fees

6. Every applicant for a licence shall furnish to the person to whom the application is made, and that information shall be set out in the licence.
7. Every licence shall before issue be signed by the issuing agent by whom the licence is issued or by some person authorised and signed by the applicant, who shall, when those conditions have been complied with, become the licence holder for the purposes of the Act and of these regulations.

9. (i) Where any person commits a breach of the Act or of these regulations or of any notification by the Minister under the Act, the Court in its discretion may, in addition to imposing a fine, declare void and of no effect any licence of that person, and the convieted person shall in such a case forthwith surrender the licence to the Court.

(2) The Court in its discretion may, in addition to any other penalty, make an order prohibiting the issue of a licence to any person in respect of whom any such order is made shall not apply for or obtain any licence during that period. Any licence obtained by any such person during that period shall be void and of no effect.

12. Where under the provisions of section 61 (2) of the Act any person purporting to be the holder of a licence under these regulations has produced the licence to an authorised person (as defined in subclauses (1) and (2) of this regulation).

Restrictions on Methods of Taking Game

18. (1) No person shall use any artificial decoy for the purpose of hunting or killing game, unless that decoy is securely anchored.

(2) No person shall place any artificial decoy within 60 yards of any other artificial decoy already set out by any other person.

(3) No person shall use any artificial decoy already set out by any other person in conformity with the following provisions:

(a) Any stand or position may be occupied on that land in accordance with the provisions of subclauses (1) and (2) of this regulation.

(b) A person shall claim more than one stand.

(c) No stand shall be claimed within 100 yards of a stand which has already been duly claimed by any other person, except with the consent of the person last entitled to that stand.

Provided that any claim in respect of the claimant's stand may be made at any time before the opening hour of shooting in that district as prescribed by the Minister's notification for the shooting season which is included in the open season.

Provided further that nothing in this regulation shall be deemed to affect in any way whatsoever the rights of the occupier of the land as defined in section 19 (4) of the Act.

19. Notwithstanding anything in regulation 19 hereof, where the society decides a time and day for the purposes of paragraph (a) of that regulation with respect to any open season, it may also decide that any licence holder who in the immediately preceding open season duly claimed and occupied a stand in accordance with the provisions of that regulation shall have the prior right to claim a stand in accordance with the provisions of that regulation before any other person, whether he is present at that stand at the time and on the day so decided or at such earlier time, being not more than 24 hours before the time so decided, as the society determines.

20. No person shall place or keep, or cause to be placed or kept, in any freezing, refrigerating or preserving works, a magazine of any kind, the magazine shall be rendered incapable of holding more than one shell, by a method which will not allow of a change in the field.

22. In this Part of these regulations—

"Freezing chamber" means any freezing chamber, cold store, refrigerating works, cannery, or other plant or premises (not being a private dwellinghouse) where any game is frozen, canned, or otherwise preserved or treated or stored:

"Freezing season" includes the first 3 days next following the close of an open season.

24. No person shall place, or cause to be placed, in any freezing chamber any game except during the open season for that game in the district in which that game was hunted or killed.

Provided that any person who has been authorised under section 56 of the Act to export frozen pheasants as defined in the First Schedule to the Act, or the owner of any such person, may, with the approval of the Secretary, place, or cause to be placed, any such pheasants in any specified freezing chamber outside the open season for that game in which it was hunted or killed.

25. No person shall place or keep, or cause to be placed or kept, any game in any freezing chamber except in accordance with the following conditions:

(a) The number of game which may at any one time be so placed or kept, or caused to be so placed or kept, by any one person shall not exceed 20 head in the aggregate:

(b) No game from which the legs have been removed shall be so placed or kept, or caused to be so placed or kept:

(c) No game shall be so placed or kept, or caused to be so placed or kept, unless there is affixed or tied thereto a label on which the following particulars are legibly written:

(i) The name and address of the owner of the game:

(ii) The date on which the game was placed in the freezing chamber:

(iii) The number of the game licence (if any) of the owner of the game:

(iv) If the owner of the game is not the holder of a game licence, such particulars as will indicate the means or manner in which ownership was acquired:

(v) The name of the acclimatisation district in which the game was taken.

Taxisdernists

29. No person shall hold in possession for the purpose of mounting, preserving, or curing any wildlife included in the First Schedule or Third Schedule to the Act, unless the wildlife has been taken or killed in the open season only for that wildlife or under the written authority of the Secretary. That authority shall be retained by the person in possession of the wildlife, and shall be produced on demand to any officer of the department.

Note: The wildlife included in the First Schedule or Third Schedule of the Wildlife Act 1953 means all the game birds.

General

44. Every person commits an offence who commits a breach of or fails to comply with any provision of these regulations, and is liable to a penalty on summary conviction of not exceeding $100, in addition to any other penalty to which he may be liable.

Charitable Trusts Act 1957

In the matter of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 and in the matter of certain charitable trusts declared by the will of ELIZABETH HIGGS of Hastings, Hawke's Bay, New Zealand, widow, deceased:

Public notice is hereby given that the Presbyterian Church Property Trustees have prepared a scheme under the provisions of Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, for variation of a trust arising under the will of Elizabeth Higgs, of Hastings, widow, deceased. The scheme provides that the executor of the will of the said Elizabeth Higgs deceased be authorised to sell a residential property in King Street, Hastings, bequeathed to the Presbyterian Church Property Trustees for use as a rest-home in Hastings for women of all denominations, and that the executor pay the proceeds of such sale to the Presbyterian Church Property Trustees upon trust to pay the costs of and incidental to the preparation and approval of the scheme and subject thereto to be applied by the Presbyterian Social Services Association of Hawke's Bay and Poverty Bay (Incorporated) for and towards the development support and maintenance of a rest-home or rest-homes in Hastings for women of all denominations. The scheme has been prepared because the property bequeathed is inadequate and unsuitable for use as a rest-home and the trustees consider that the wishes of the testatrix will be best met in the manner proposed.

The application of the Presbyterian Church Property Trustees for approval of the scheme is to be heard in the Supreme Court at Wellington on Wednesday, the 29th day of April 1970. Any person desiring to oppose the scheme is hereby required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Wellington, the Presbyterian Church Property Trustees, and the Attorney General not less than 7 clear days before the said 29th day of April 1970.

The address for service of the Presbyterian Church Property Trustees is at the offices of Messrs Macalister Mazengarb Parkin and Rose, Solicitors, National Bank Building, Featherston Street, Wellington.
