

There may be grounds for regarding this journal as arrogant, offensive, "sick", or even libellous or subversive. We have no jurisdiction to consider any of these elements unless, taken as a whole, the journal deals with sex, horror, crime, cruelty, or violence in a manner injurious to the public good. Where it does deal with these matters the items are gross and offensive rather than harmful, and the paper is not primarily a vehicle for them. It is unlikely that anyone would buy it primarily to see them; and the general purpose of the paper is to put forward a point of view towards the acceptance of which their coarseness makes little contribution. Accordingly we decide that the magazine is not indecent.

L. G. H. SINCLAIR, Chairman.
