

(2) If, in respect of any lot of butter sold by a retailer, the maximum price calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause is not an exact number of cents, the maximum price of the lot shall be computed to the nearest whole cent.

SPECIAL PRICES WHERE EXTRAORDINARY CHARGES INCURRED

13. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of his order and subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any trader, may authorise special maximum prices in respect of any butter to which this order applies where special circumstances exist or for any reason extraordinary charges are incurred by the trader. Any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to a specified lot or consignment of butter or may relate generally to all butter to which this order applies sold by the trader while the approval remains in force.

Dated at Wellington this 20th day of August 1971.

The seal of the Price Tribunal was affixed hereto in the presence of—
