

The scheme provides: "That the words contained in clause 11 of the will 'for a recuperative home for invalid sailors or orphans and widows of sailors this home is not to be sold' be deleted therefrom and the following words be substituted therefor: 'Upon trust to sell the same at such time and in such manner and upon such terms as the society thinks fit but not in any event at a price below the current Government valuation for the unimproved value of the property and to vest the proceeds then realised in the Peter Oag Trust Fund Board. Upon trust to invest the same in any form of investment for the time being authorised by the law of New Zealand for the investment of trust funds and to apply the income therefrom in New Zealand to the needs of invalid sailors or the dependants of deceased sailors.'"

The scheme has been prepared because the society considers that the property should be sold and the proceeds of sale applied in the manner aforesaid as in the society's opinion it is impossible, impracticable, and inexpedient to carry out the terms of the said trust.

The application of the society for approval of the scheme is to be heard in the Supreme Court, at Wellington, on Wednesday, the 13th day of October 1971, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon. Any person desiring to oppose the scheme is required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Wellington and the British Sailors Society Wellington Incorporated and the Attorney-General, not less than 7 clear days before the said 13th day of October 1971.

The address for service of The British Sailors Society Wellington Incorporated is at the offices of Messrs Chapman, Tripp, and Co., Solicitors, 20 Brandon Street, Wellington.
