IN the matter of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and in the matter of the estate of GEORGE BOOTH, formerly of Tuakau, but more lately of Manurewa, farmer, deceased:

NOTICE is hereby given that the New Zealand Returned Services' Association (Inc.), the trustee of the estate of the above-named George Booth, deceased, has filed in the Supreme Court at Auckland an application for approval of a scheme propounded under Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 in respect of a devise and bequest contained in clause nine of the will of the said George Booth, deceased, under which he directed his trustee to stand possessed of the residue of his estate for the benefit and maintenance of New Zealanders engaged on active service in the war with Germany and her allies which commenced in September 1939 and who are or may be disabled or who may be incapacitated by ill health and who are in indigent or necessitous circumstances the said trust having been varied by the Supreme Court on the 12th day of December 1958 upon an application made under Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 by constituting the New Zealand Returned Services' Association (Inc.) as trustee of the trust in place of the Guardian Trust and Executors Company of New Zealand Ltd., by directing that the new trustee should hold the trust funds both as to the capital and the income thereof "for the benefit and maintenance of persons who, while of New Zealand nationality, took part on active service in the war with Germany and her allies and which commenced in September 1939 and who are or may become disabled or who contracted ill health whilst on such active service from the effects of which they are for the time being suffering or who are or may become incapacitated by ill health and who are in indigent or necessitous circumstances irrespective whether or not such persons are members of the New Zealand Returned Services' Association (Inc.)", and by extending the term of the said trust to the 31st day of December 1982.

The purport of the scheme now propounded is that the trusts imposed by the said clause nine and varied by the Supreme Court as aforesaid shall henceforth be carried out by the New Zealand Returned Services' Association (Inc.) upon the following terms:

"That the assets comprising the residue of the estate of George Booth, deceased, be held by the New Zealand Returned Services' Association (Inc.) upon trust both the capital and the income for the benefit and maintenance of distressed New Zealanders who served in the war with Germany and her allies which commenced in September 1939 and who are servicemen within the meaning of the Rehabilitation Act 1941 or their dependents or distressed or needy dependents of deceased New Zealanders who served in the war and were servicemen as aforesaid. Membership of the New Zealand Returned Services' Association (Inc.) shall not be a condition of eligibility for benefit".

The motion for approval of the said scheme would be heard at the Supreme Court in Auckland, on Monday, the 15th day of November 1971, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

A copy of the scheme may be inspected at the Supreme Court office at Auckland or at the offices of Messrs Rudd, Garland, and Horrocks, Seventh Floor, A.M.P. Building, Queen Street, Auckland 1.

Any person desiring to oppose the scheme must give written notice of his intention so to do to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Auckland and to the New Zealand Returned Services' Association (Inc.), 12 Victoria Street, Wellington 1, and to Her Majesty's Attorney-General, not less than 7 clear days before the said 15th day of November 1971.

RUDD, GARLAND, AND HORROCKS.
