Amendment to Rules of Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand

Pursuant to section 11 of the Sharebrokers Act 1908, the Governor-General in Council on 18 October 1971 approved the following amendment to the Rules of the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand:

Rule 15—This rule is deleted and the following substituted:

Election of President and Vice President

(i) At each annual meeting the committee shall elect a member to be President of the Association and another member to be Vice President of the Association. A nominee need not be a delegate. The President and the Vice President shall hold office until the conclusion of the meeting at which their successors in office are appointed.

(ii) A candidate for each of the offices of President and Vice President shall be nominated by the executive not later than 31 October in each year and each such candidate shall signify in writing his willingness to be elected. All exchanges shall be notified immediately such nominations have been made.

(iii) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph an exchange may nominate a candidate for either office. Each such candidate shall signify in writing his willingness to be elected. Nominations shall close at the office of the Association not later than 30 November in each year. Exchanges shall be notified of the names of all candidates for each position as soon as practicable after nominations have closed.

(iv) A country member shall not be counted as a member for purposes of this rule.

Rule 112A—This is deleted and replaced by the following:

(i) Unless otherwise determined by the executive transactions in all securities (other than New Zealand Government stock or local body stock) shall be officially quoted as "ex dividend", "ex interest", or "ex capital return", as the case may be on the third business day prior to and inclusive of the date of closing of transfer books, to determine those entitled to participate in the distribution.

(ii) Where a transfer of securities sold cum dividend, cum interest, or on deposit during the 3 business days prior to and inclusive of the date of the closing of the transfer books or on any day thereafter, the selling broker shall allow for the amount of the dividend, interest, or capital return the time of settlement.

(iii) Where a transfer of securities sold—
(a) "Ex dividend", "ex interest", or "ex capital return"; or
(b) "Cum dividend", "cum interest", or "cum capital return"; and settlement is adjusted by the amount of the dividend, interest, or capital return involved is determined as in the 3 business days prior to and inclusive of the date of closing of transfer books, the transfer must be clearly endorsed by the selling broker that it is "ex dividend", interest, or capital return as the case may be and the buyer must not lodge it with the company for registration purposes until after the date of closing of the transfer books. When such a transfer is lodged contrary to this rule, the buying broker must immediately refund the amount involved to the selling broker.

For the purpose of this rule a business day shall mean any day other than Saturday, Sunday, or any holiday which is common to all affiliated stock exchanges.

An amendment is to come into force on the first day of the month following its gazetting.

Rule 121—This rule is to be amended by adding to paragraph (iv):

Save that, unless otherwise agreed, where a buying broker requests script of a company which does not permit marking of transfers, scrip must be delivered to match up with each transfer at time of delivery.

Rule 122—The word "registered" in the sixteenth line of Rule 122 is to be deleted.

Rule 130—This is amended by adding at the end of the present rule:

Provided that where the committee so approves the foregoing requirements of this rule may be dispensed with.

Rule 132—This rule is deleted and the following substituted:

Right of Quotation—The right of quotation on the official list shall be granted only by the Association and upon such terms and conditions as the committee may generally or in any particular case from time to time determine. Notwithstanding the foregoing the committee may delegate to the secretary/treasurer or other officer or officers of the Association (subject to such conditions as it shall from time to time determine) a general power to grant such right of quotation in respect of any shares in any company which are listed in the Association's official list of overseas stock exchange or in any case where an exchange has so recommended and the general requirements and conditions from time to time laid down by the committee or the executive as a condition precedent to the right of quotation on the official list have been complied with.

Rule 134—This rule is deleted and the following substituted:

Where a prospectus states that listing is being sought, no member shall act as agent in buying or selling the securities concerned until they have been listed by the Association on the official list and the requirements set out in the Association's regulations and as the committee may from time to time determine have been complied with. Upon exchanges having notified the Association that listing has been refused, the Association's member shall act as agent in buying or selling the securities concerned until exchanges have been notified that listing has been refused. Where a prospectus states that listing is being sought, no member shall compete in placing the issue. Upon making by the executive of any regulations hereunder the executive shall cause a copy of the regulations to be forwarded to the secretary of the exchange and the regulations shall thereafter become effective in all respects. Any breach by a member or any provisions of the regulations shall be deemed to be a breach of these rules.

No. 350

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of and application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Chopper, England's King of Angels by Peter L. Cave, published by New English Library, London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

A New English Library paperback by Peter L. Cave, is a vigorous account of the struggle for power in a motorcycle gang. The uglier features of violence and sexual activity are present, and the author takes the usual licence of investing his tale with a measure of dramatic tension. Making due allowance for this we find that the picture, deplorable though it is, is not untrue. It illustrates accurately some of the regrettable features of the life of bored and lawless groups of young people in many big cities today. Its value is more sociological than literary, but it would be wrong to try to shield adults from it. We feel, however, that there are elements in the narrative which might encourage emulation.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Patterns of Incest by R. C. L. Masters, published by Ace Books, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

This is a paperback edition of a book first published in 1963. It presents the author's views on incest along with case studies by several other authors and extracts from two fictional portrayals of incest.

The perverted nature of much of the behaviour described and the clinical detail of the study both require a restriction that will make the book available only to those who can properly make use of it.

The Tribunal classifies the book as indecent except in the hands of persons engaged in work or research in medical, sociological, and related fields.

Decision of the Tribunal

This story centres around a club for lesbians. The lesbian relationships of various members are recounted in detail. However, the story is told with a certain degree of restraint but because of the specific description of lesbian activities the Tribunal is inclined to the view that it is unsuitable for young people.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the magazine Kingaize, Vol. 2, published by American Art Enterprises, California.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

Apart from a few short stories and some snippets of sexual gossip this magazine consists entirely of photographs of models in grossly suggestive poses. Everything in the magazine's treatment of sex, in pictures and text, debase and distorts and the magazine is clearly indecent within the meaning of the Act.

The Tribunal classifies this magazine as indecent.

Inquisition* by Maria Deluz, published by Canova Press Ltd., London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no
submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

The lurid cover of this book matches the tone of the text.
The sexual and sadistic practices described are offered for prurient savouring and the experiences of the heroine, despite the protestations about her suffering, are rendered without feeling or honest concern.

The book exploits sensational material and deals with sex and violence in a manner that violates the Act.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

for a decision in respect of the book Quiet Days in Clichy by

There was no appearance of the applicant, Mr. P. J. Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the publishers and made

Decision of the Tribunal

The Tribunal has considered other works by Henry Miller in earlier years. This further book was written in 1940 but sub-tantially revised before publication in 1956. It revokes with characteristic frankness and colour brief moments in Miller's life in Paris in the thirties. Its vivid reminiscence of sexual experience will offend some readers, but considering the book a whole, and giving weight to section 11 (2) of the Act, the Tribunal concludes that Quiet Days in Clichy should take its place among Miller's works that are freely available.

The Tribunal classifies the book as not indecent.

Decision of the Tribunal

This novel presents a sadist's treatment of the latest of the female victims he has acquired. She turns out to be the last of his victims as well, for at the climax of the book she reverses their roles and her master drowns both in ecstasy and in his swimming pool. It emerges that she has been playing the role all along and in the final pages she is identified as a successful liquidator of "foolish maids" and as the priestess of a new religion devoted to the triumph of women.

The fact that the sadist is disposed of and the presence in these final pages of the topical theme of women's liberation do nothing to offset the impression given by everything that precedes. The various bizarre tortures and fantasies are dwell on with a relish that panders to perverted and morbid interest in sexual exploitation and violence.

The Tribunal classifies the book as indecent.

No. 366

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for decisions in respect of the books I am Curious (Yellow) by Vilgot Sjöman, Blue Movie by Andy Warhol, and Events by Fred Baker, published by Grove Press, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

Decision of the Tribunal

This is the summer 1971 issue of the magazine which is published quarterly and sold at approximately $2 per copy. As in the case of Evergreen No. 66, which was the subject of Tribunal Decision 190, this publication is a significant expression of a school of avant-garde thought and writing in America and should be available to students of contemporary American literature. It has value also for students of sociology. It consists largely of articles of merit and interest in their own right, and displays a serious and informed concern on matters of universal relevance.

Exception on the grounds of indecency might be taken to nudity in photographs; in the case of those illustrating a Manhattan community "Westbeth" the Tribunal judges that they are necessary to the study of such social phenomena. In the other case, where the photographs come from an Amsterdam gymnasium, they are likely to offend only those whom nudity as such always offends and this attitude is not regarded by the Tribunal as a prevailing one; here there is no prurience or perversion.

The Tribunal classifies the book as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

Decision of the Tribunal

This is a wildly improbable story of a domineering young teacher and her pupil, told with much sadomasochistic relish. There is no development of character or situation, and on the counts of literary merit, social significance and honesty of purpose this hits rock-bottom.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

No. 359

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book The Master Baiter by Troy Conway, published by Paperback Library, New York. There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

This decision is based on the content and not on the author's intention.

Decision of the Tribunal

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

Decision of the Tribunal

This is a frank, not to say frantic, exposition of how women achieve sexual satisfaction. The assertion that there is for women only one means to orgasm is open to question, and, that the claim that there has been no book on the subject is, in view at least of Dr Helena Wright's publications of 20 years ago, not allowable.

But the field of inquiry is a legitimate one and the case for clitoral orgasm needs plain treatment. Any exaggeration or inaccuracies in this book are not of a kind to destroy its usefulness which could well be considerable.

The Tribunal classifies this book as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

12 October 1971.

Decision of the Tribunal

These titles represent a comparatively new, but growing, genre of publication: the script or scenario of a film, illustrated with numerous stills taken from the film sequence. They are the first of this kind that the Tribunal has had brought before it, and it is therefore important to emphasise that the Tribunal is solely concerned with the books before it and, must judge them as such; what it says about them, and the decisions it has reached, are in no sense a judgment or commentary on the films themselves. This is stressed because the Tribunal has always been concerned to make decisions which are on the book as a whole, not on particular parts of it (as it is required to do under section 11 (1) (a) of the Act); in these cases, a large part of the contents, the illustrations, are being seen by the Tribunal out of context of the whole film from which they come.

"I am Curious (Yellow)" is a Swedish film made in 1966-67; it explores many aspects of life in Sweden today—political, economic, social, sexual—and clearly has an underlying serious social purpose. Sex, frankly depicted, has its place in the book, but it neither has a predominant place in the whole, nor does it appear out of context with the rest of the production seen as a vehicle of social protest. In other words, the sexual episodes have not been introduced into it gratuitously. Appended to the scenario is a long section giving extracts from the evidence given by a number of witnesses (literary and film critics, sociologists and psychologists) when the film was prosecuted on an obscenity charge in the United States in 1968.

The Tribunal classifies the book as not indecent.
Indecent Publications Tribunal

I, Jack Alexander McLeod Kean, Comptroller of Customs, give notice that I have applied to the Indecent Publications Tribunal for a decision as to whether the book described below is indecent or not, or for a decision as to its classification.

Title: Lesbian Secrets.

Author: Evelyn Theodor.

Publisher: Riverhaven Ltd., 50 Alexandra Road, London S.W. 19.

---

Indecent Publications Tribunal

I, Jack Alexander Kean, Comptroller of Customs, give notice that I have applied to the Indecent Publications Tribunal for a decision as to whether the book Blue Movie, published by Andy Warhol in 1968; he states, according to the back cover, that it is a film about the war in Vietnam; it is in fact a film, or in this case, a book, about two people having sexual relations, which are shown with the utmost frankness. There is an element of socio-political comment. The skills chosen for the book heighten the emphasis on sex but not to such an extent that the book should be denied to adults.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

Event

Events were made in 1968-69 by Fred Baker, and is almost wholly concerned with sex and drugs; it culminates in an orgy or group sex. The line between fiction and reality is a very thin one and it is difficult to ascribe any social or artistic merit to the book. However it is unlikely that the book would have an injurious effect on adults.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.
