

Price Order No. 2178 (Bread)

PURSUANT to the Control of Prices Act 1947, the Price Tribunal hereby makes the following price order:

PRELIMINARY

1. This order may be cited as Price Order No. 2178 and shall come into force on the 11th day of November 1971.

APPLICATION OF THIS ORDER

2. (1) This order applies to that kind or class of bread (other than bread subject to Price Order No. 2177) sliced or unsliced, which is enclosed and securely wrapped at the bakehouse in clean unused paper and which was sold, before the 11th day of November 1971, at—

- (a) A wholesale selling price of 10 percent less than the retail selling price; and
 (b) A retail selling price not exceeding 16 cents per loaf.

(2) This order does not apply to bread sold on Stewart Island.

FIXING MAXIMUM WHOLESALE AND RETAIL PRICES OF BREAD TO WHICH THIS ORDER APPLIES

3. Subject to the provisions of this order, the maximum wholesale and retail selling prices which may be charged or received for any bread of the kind or class to which this order applies shall be as follows:

- (a) For sales by way of wholesale (see clause 4 below) 17 cents per loaf less 10 percent.
 (b) For sales by way of retail 17 cents per loaf.

4. The wholesale price fixed by this order applies to bread delivered to the retailer's premises. In any case where bread is not so delivered the price shall be such as is agreed upon between the baker and the retailer, or failing such agreement, as may be approved by the Tribunal.

BOOKING FEE

5. In addition to the price fixed by clause 3 (b) of this order a retailer may charge a booking fee at the rate of one half cent ($\frac{1}{2}$ c) per loaf in respect of any bread of the kind or class to which this order applies if that bread is not paid for before, or at the time of, the customer's taking delivery of the bread at the shop.

SPECIAL PRICES WHERE EXTRAORDINARY CHARGES INCURRED

6. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this order, and subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any wholesaler, or retailer, may authorise special maximum prices in respect of any bread of the kind or class to which this order applies where special circumstances exist or for any reason extraordinary charges (freight or otherwise) are incurred by the wholesaler or retailer. Any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to a specified lot or consignment of bread or may relate generally to all bread sold by the wholesaler or retailer, while the approval remains in force.

Dated at Wellington this 10th day of November 1971.

The seal of the Price Tribunal was affixed hereto in the presence of:
