Royal Commission to Inquire Into and Report Upon Hospital and Related Services

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom, New Zealand, and Her Other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith: To Our Trusty and Well-beloved CHARLES PIERREPONT HUTCHINSON, Esquire, M.B.E., of Auckland, Queen's Counsel, JAMES RICHARD CROPPER, Esquire, of Auckland, company director, WILTON ERNEST HENLEY, Esquire, C.B.E., of Auckland, medical superintendent-in-chief, JOHN TURNBULL, Esquire, O.B.E., of Wellington, retired secretary, and IONA WILLIAMS, of Dunedin, married woman.

GREETING:

Know ye that We, reposing trust and confidence in your integrity, knowledge, and ability, hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said

CHARLES PIERREPONT HUTCHINSON, M.B.E.;
JAMES RICHARD CROPPER;
WILTON ERNEST HENLEY, C.B.E.;
JOHN TURNBULL, O.B.E.; and

to be a Commission to receive representations upon, inquire into, investigate, and report upon the existing facilities and the future requirements for hospital and related services for New Zealand and the resources to provide such services, and to recommend such measures as you believe will ensure adequate provision of such services, and, in particular, but without restricting the generality of the foregoing, to receive representations upon, inquire into, investigate, and report upon the following matters:

1. The plans, policies, and programmes of the Department of Health, Hospital Boards, and other hospital and related agencies for dealing with the treatment, care, and rehabilitation of hospital patients, including the provision of specialist, out-patient, day-hospital, and domiciliary services, and the need, if any, for changes in such plans, policies, or programmes.

2. The functions, powers, responsibilities, and inter-relationships of the Department of Health, Hospital Boards, and other hospital and related agencies, and the need, if any, for changes in geographical areas of responsibility, or in the functions, constitutions, or powers of such bodies in relation to the said services.

3. The organisation and scope of the hospital services in relation to medical care work carried out by non-hospital agencies, including medical practitioners, and the need, if any, for changes in relationships, particularly in the light of developments such as the emergence of health centres and group medical practice, and particularly also in respect of the provision of hospital treatment for maternity patients.

4. The relationship of hospital services with the preventive aspects of medicine including the public health services, and the need, if any, for closer integration of these services.

5. The financing of hospital and related services, including those provided by private hospitals and welfare agencies, and the need, if any, for changes in the system of finance or methods of control over expenditure, including the sources from which and the means by which any such services should be financed.

6. The provision of buildings and other physical facilities for the housing or treatment of patients in all classes of hospitals, including the inter-relationship of such facilities and also their relationship with other medical care facilities, and the need, if any, for changes in policies or programmes in relation thereto.

7. The existing medical, nursing, para-medical, and other staffing provision for hospitals and the adequacy of such provisions, and the need, if any, for changes in any of these matters.

8. The administration of hospital services, and, in particular, the organisation of hospital work, the management and training of staff (otherwise than for the purpose of obtaining registrable qualifications), the provision of staff accommodation and amenities, the use of modern methods and techniques and aids to management, and the need, if any, for changes in respect of any of those matters.

9. In respect of nursing, the justification, if any, for a differential pay scale in favour of—

(a) Psychiatric and psychopaedic nurses as such over other kinds of nurses; or

(b) All nurses employed in psychiatric or psychopaedic hospitals over nurses employed elsewhere,— on the grounds of job content or responsibility, conditions of work, or for any other reasons.

10. Any amendments that should be made to existing legislation to promote improvements in any of the aforesaid matters.

11. Any associated matters that may be thought by you to be relevant to the general objects of the inquiry.

And We hereby appoint you the said

CHARLES PIERREPONT HUTCHINSON, M.B.E.,
to be Chairman of the said Commission:

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorised and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry or investigation under these presents in such manner and at such time and place as you think expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and place
