The Land and Income Tax Act 1954—Interest on Income Tax Paid in Advance

PURSUANT to section 207 of the Land and Income Tax Act 1954, as amended by section 89 (c) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1957, the Minister of Finance has prescribed that interest at 4.25 percent per annum will be credited on advance payments of income tax made by a taxpayer, being:

1. A subsisting company* or a public authority (other than either of them in the capacity of a trustee or agent) on account of income tax on income derived during the income year which commenced on the 1st day of April 1970 and becoming payable on the 7th day of August 1972 provided the total interest so calculated amounts to 50c or more.

Advance payments carry interest for each complete month commencing from the 7th day of February 1972 or the date of payment (whichever is the later) to the 6th day of August 1972 inclusive.

2. A subsisting company* or a public authority (other than either of them in the capacity of a trustee or agent) or a Maori authority, on account of income tax on income derived during the income year which commenced on the 1st day of April 1971 and becoming payable on the 7th day of February 1973 provided the total interest so calculated amounts to 50c or more.

Advance payments carry interest for each complete month commencing from the 7th day of March 1972 or the date of payment (whichever is the later) to the 6th day of February 1973 inclusive.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of February 1972.

D. A. STEVENS, Commissioner of Inland Revenue.

*"Subsisting company" means a company which was incorporated before the 26th day of July 1957, but does not include a company which, by virtue of an election under section 42 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1957, has become a provisional taxpayer.
