CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1957

In the Supreme Court of New Zealand
Taranaki District
(New Plymouth Registry)

IN THE MATTER of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and IN THE MATTER of THE ESTATE OF ANNIE MARIE LEACH RUMBLE, formerly of Stratford, widow, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to section 36 of the above-mentioned Act that HUGH DOUGLAS THOMSON, of Stratford, Solicitor, and DAVID SPENCE THOMSON, also of Stratford, Minister of the Crown, as trustees of the estate have applied to the Supreme Court for the approval of a scheme prepared under section 34 of the said Act for the disposition as hereinafter mentioned of the property held by the above-mentioned trustees pursuant to the will of ANNIE MARIE LEACH RUMBLE upon trust for the Royal New Zealand Institute of Horticulture (Incorporated) the said trust being impossible or impracticable or inexpedient to carry out for the purposes stated in such trust.

Particulars of the said scheme are as follows:

The property held by the trustees as aforesaid upon the trust provided in the said will shall be applied for the following purposes.

1. There shall be a trust established for the benefit of the Stratford District and its environs in the Dominion of New Zealand and the said trust shall be known as "The Annie Rumble Trust" (hereinafter referred to as "the Trust").

2. The capital of the Trust shall comprise the realised assets of a bequest made for the benefit of the Royal New Zealand Institute of Horticulture (Incorporated) by the late Annie Marie Leach Rumble formerly of Stratford, widow, together with any accrued income from the said assets and such other funds or assets as the Trust Board of the Trust shall in its absolute discretion approve for addition to the said assets and the said accrued income.

3. The income of the Trust shall be derived from the investment of the capital of the Trust pursuant to the Trustee Act 1956 and its amendments.

4. The Trust Board of the Trust shall be the Dominion Council of the Royal New Zealand Institute of Horticulture (hereinafter referred to as "the Trust Board") and the Secretary for the time being of the said Dominion Council shall be the Secretary of the Trust Board.

5. The objects of the Trust shall, subject to the conditions, terms, and provisions hereinafter contained or implied, be as follows:

A. To make from the accumulated income of the Trust educational grants to horticulturists, horticultural students, and trainees, and other workers in horticulture with the intention that such persons may be assisted:

- (a) To advance their horticultural studies generally;
- (b) To undertake original research in horticulture;
- (c) To travel overseas to pursue horticultural studies or undertake horticultural research; or
- (d) To undertake any particular work for the advancement of horticulture in the Dominion of New Zealand.

B. To make from the accumulated income of the Trust grants to organisations in the Borough or County of Stratford the objects of which accord with the objects of the Royal New Zealand Institute of Horticulture for such work in horticulture as shall be approved by the Electing Committee hereinafter constituted.

6. Educational grants as hereinbefore provided shall be made to persons who:

- (a) Shall at one time or another have resided in the Borough or County of Stratford or in adjacent Boroughs or Counties or shall have attended any post-primary school in or adjacent to the Borough of Stratford; and
- (b) Shall have the express desire to pursue studies or research in horticulture.

Provided however that no grant shall be made to a person other than a resident or former resident of the Borough or County of Stratford without the consent of the Stratford representative on the Electing Committee hereinafter constituted.

7. All educational and other grants shall, pursuant to the provisions, terms, and conditions herein contained, be approved by the Trust Board on the recommendation of an Electing Committee comprising six persons, namely: (a) the President for the time being of the Royal New Zealand Institute of Horticulture (ex officio) or his nominee; (b) the Chairman for the time being of the Examining Board of the said Institute; and (c) four persons who shall represent the Stratford Borough and County and who shall be appointed annually by the North Taranaki District Council of the said Institute.

8. It shall be the duty of the said Electing Committee in its discretion, but subject to the provisions, terms, and conditions, herein contained, to call applications for grants from the accumulated income of the Trust.

9. Upon the establishment of the Trust as herein provided the income from the capital of the Trust shall be accumulated until such income exceeds $2,000.00 at which stage the said Electing Committee shall call for and consider applications for grants as herein provided and shall recommend to the Trust Board such distribution of the accumulated income as may be appropriate in the circumstances.

10. The said Electing Committee shall meet at least once in every year but additional meetings may be called at the discretion of the Chairman of the Committee.

11. A quorum at meetings of the said Electing Committee shall be three members.

12. The Chairman of the said Electing Committee shall be appointed by the Committee annually from its own membership and he shall have a casting vote.

13. The bankers of the Trust shall be the bankers of the Royal New Zealand Institute of Horticulture.

The said scheme and the Attorney-General's report thereon have been filed in and may be inspected at the offices of the Supreme Court at New Plymouth.

The date proposed for the hearing of the application to approve the said scheme is Friday, the 2nd day of June 1972.

Any person desiring to oppose the said scheme is required to give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at New Plymouth and to the trustees (whose address for service is at the offices of Messrs Moss and Co., Solicitors, 4 Devon Street East, New Plymouth) and also to the Attorney-General not less than 7 days before the said date proposed for the hearing of the application.
